Truman Announces He Will Not Run Again

Truckers Go-Back To Jobs

Agreement Settles Kansas City Strike After Three Weeks; Loads Start Rolling

KANSAS CITY, March 29—(AP)—The three-week truckers strike in Kansas City was ended tonight by an agreement between the drivers' union and trucking companies, Albert A. Fowler, president of the Highway Carriers Association announced.

Fowler said truckloads of long-haul shipments will start rolling out of the terminals here tonight.

He said the carriers association and local 41 of the Teamsters and Chauffeurs union (AFL) reached an agreement by compromising "to appease the public."

About 2,500 drivers employed by 107 firms here have been on strike over wages and hours since March 7. Although only local drivers were off the jobs, over-the-road drivers refused to cross picket lines at the big terminals and many cross-country shipments were tied up.

Recently union drivers walked out at several other cities in the midwest. Union men said they were refusing to handle "hot cargo" whose movement would promote unfair labor practices.

Terms Not Announced

Terms of the settlement here were not announced immediately.

Final approval of the contract was subject to union ratification. A union spokesman said:

"We have reached a tentative agreement and are calling a meeting of all drivers concerned for 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning."

He said ratification was expected to be merely a formality.

The agreement was reached after a continuous session that began Friday night with a federal mediator taking part, Fowler said.

A walkout of union drivers in Nebraska Tuesday virtually stopped the normal flow of trucking between Chicago and Denver.

Earlier today at Omaha District Judge James M. Patton signed a temporary restraining order against the Teamsters union local 554 whose members had walked out on 11 trucking firms operating into Kansas City.

Nebraska Action An Aid

Attorney Edson Smith, representing the companies, said the Nebraska walkouts were called to force a settlement of the Kansas City strike.

A temporary injunction was granted against the international union in Chicago yesterday at the request of 58 long-haul truck firms. The Central States Drivers' Council also was named a defendant.

The truck tie-up had officials in Joplin, Mo., uneasy because 15 truckloads of high explosives were parked at strike-bound terminals there. About 250 over-the-road trucks were standing idle at Joplin.

Patricia Berry Hurt As She Runs Into Side of Car

Patricia Berry, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Berry, 1501½ South Ohio, received bruises when she ran from behind a parked car at 16th and Ohio into the side of a car driven by Dr. John B. Carlisle. The accident occurred about 12:30 p. m. Saturday.

According to the report given the police, Dr. Carlisle was driving west on 16th when the child appeared from behind a parked car which was headed west on 16th. She ran into the side of the vehicle, the police were advised.

Dr. Carlisle stopped immediately and, with her parents, took the child to the Bothwell Hospital where he rendered treatment and then took her to the family home.

Cigarette Starts Fire, Causes Painful Burns

Crawling beneath his house with a lighted cigarette between his lips to investigate a leaking gas pipe proved very painful to Robert Smith, Jr., 913 East Seventh, about 2:57 p. m. Saturday. The gas exploded, causing first degree burns on Smith's ears, forehead, both hands and both cheeks.

He was treated by Dr. Joseph W. Maunders who reported his condition as painful but not serious.

Both fire companies answered the alarm. Slight damage resulted to the residence.

The Weather

Increasing cloudiness, windy and mild, Sunday. Scattered showers west and north. Monday, mostly cloudy; moderately colder northwest portion Monday. High Sunday generally near 70.

Sedalia on Parade Day—

Living Pictures in Local Store Windows Friday Night

Living pictures and other special displays will be featured in store windows of the business district of the city Friday night to provide one of the most attractive and interesting window shopping tours ever in Sedalia. It's "Sedalia On Parade Day."

Members of the Missouri Pacific Women's Booster Club are sponsoring the event which has almost complete cooperation from the merchants in the area from Main to Broadway and from Lamine to Kentucky.

Realizing there is never more fun than from window shopping, the MoPac women suggested the novel window displays for the April 4 evening. Merchants quickly went along with the plan and special decorations for that night are being planned.

In many of the store windows there were to be local residents doing the modeling, forming living pictures for the fashion of the season.

Special Music On Streets

If weather permits there will be other features, too, special music and entertainment on the streets. Members of the Sacred Heart High School glee club will sing, traveling through the area on a truck.

Also, members of the Missouri Pacific Minstrel will sing and entertain throughout the area. A truck and piano for their entertainment is being provided by Shaw Music Co., to allow the specialities to be seen and heard near all the cooperating stores.

No parking will be allowed on several blocks of the downtown area, but traffic will be allowed to move throughout the district so those who do not want to walk along the entire route will have a chance to ride and see all the displays.

Mayor Herb Studer has proclaimed Friday as "Sedalia on Parade Day" and the picture windows in the stores will be the feature of the occasion.

Many Stores Cooperating

More than 50 merchants had indicated Saturday they will be participating and many of the windows they are planning are taking on quite unusual designs. Some will be quite serious and carry out special themes. Others will be humorous and a few will be of a religious nature.

Such entertainment and shopping pleasure has been provided in numerous communities throughout this and other states in past seasons and the MoPac club women hope the acceptance of the idea here will be such to warrant its continuation as an annual event.

Naturally there will be no admission, there couldn't be. And the stores will not be open, only their windows especially prepared for the downtown visitors.

Hours Are 7 To 9

Side streets as well as the main thorofares will be included and the hours will be from 7 to 9 for all the windows. Some will probably be ready earlier and others will have the lights on later. However, from 7 to 9 the entire "show" will be ready and open to the public.

Members of the Missouri—Pacific Women's Club Committee are as follows: Mrs. A. J. Gregory, president, Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mrs. Jack Lobaugh, Mrs. Frank Hannigan, Mrs. Otis Waller, Mrs. W. A. Spraggins, Mrs. I. C. Evans, Mrs. L. E. Sheridan, Mrs. John Blue, Mrs. Herbert Berlin, Mrs. John Thomas White, Mrs. Charles Keller, chairman of the committee, and Mrs. W. A. McMillen.

Brother of Hughesville Woman Shot By Gunman Who Kills 3

One of the neighbors who tried to aid a farm family from a killer on a Nebraska ranch Thursday was Clifford McDonald, brother of Mrs. Fred Hoos of Hughesville.

McDonald was shot in the neck by the gunman who killed the farm couple and another neighbor and wounded the couple's 10-month old baby. McDonald's wound was not critical, his sister learned in a telephone call to members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mensinger and Deo Gardner, another neighbor, were killed by the gunman who was later fatally wounded by members of a posse who trapped him in a shed about six miles from the scene of the wild shooting.

McDonald went to the aid of the Mensingers after Mrs. Mensinger had sounded the general alarm over the rural telephone line. She rang a series of short rings to call attention of all those on the party line. McDonald answered, but in the meantime Mrs. Mensinger had been killed. McDonald heard the baby crying and started to the farm to find out the trouble.

With other neighbors he helped set up a road block and the gunman fired at the group as he tried to go through. McDonald and Gardner were injured then.

The gunman, identified as Baline Ellis, had two guns as he appeared at the Mensinger place. He shot Mr. Mensinger once, Mrs. Mensinger twice, the second wound proving fatal. The second blast fired at the woman injured the baby.

McDonald was shot with a shotgun while Gardner suffered a pistol wound.

3 Badly Hurt In Car Wreck At Knob Noster

Three persons were injured and four others suffered minor bruises, abrasions and shock in a three-car accident on the Highway 50 viaduct over the Missouri Pacific tracks just west of Knob Noster about 7:45 p. m., Saturday. The occupants of the vehicles were taken to the Warrensburg clinic where treatment was rendered.

Seriously hurt are: Ed Street, superintendent of the Versailles schools; Mrs. Street, his wife; and Emanuel C. Seals, Negro, of Higginsville.

Others who were treated are: Miss Elvera Baumgartner, 18, Versailles; Miss Mary Lou Frisbie, 18, Versailles; Miss Twila Hilty, 16, Versailles; and Judy Street, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Street.

The accident, according to Sgt. W. S. Barton, occurred on the viaduct when the 1937 Chevrolet driven by Seals and a 1950 Plymouth sedan, driven by Lawson Nichols, 17, Versailles, sideswiped. The Chevrolet swerved in back of the Plymouth and collided with the 1950 Buick sedan driven by Street.

Nichols and Street were headed east on Highway 50, while the Chevrolet was going west. After the Buick and Chevrolet collided the Chevrolet continued on and dropped through the guard rail onto the Missouri Pacific right-of-way. Damage to the Plymouth was estimated at $300 to the Buick $1,000 and the Chevrolet was demolished.

In the Nichols car were Robert Hall, 17, Miss Mary Elliott, 17, Miss Charlene Hinrod, 16, and Miss Betty Robinson, 15, all of Versailles.

Supt. Street, Nichols and their passengers had been at the Central Missouri State College in Warrensburg attending the school band contests.

86-Year-Old Saves Her Daughter's Life

ST. LOUIS, March 29 — (AP) — Quick action by an 86-year-old woman today was credited with saving the life of her 57-year-old daughter, whose clothing was on fire.

Mrs. Lulu Hobbs beat out the flames and tore the clothing from her daughter, Mrs. Lorena Lowe.

Mrs. Lowe ran screaming from the kitchen after she accidentally knocked over a kerosene-burning steam kettle used to loosen wallpaper.

The daughter suffered first and second degree burns of both arms and her right leg. Mrs. Hobbs was burned less seriously.

Red Cross Appeals Are Made Today in Churches of Sedalia

Today all the ministers in the county have been asked to make special appeals to their congregations to help the Red Cross fund raising campaign reach its goal.

The need for funds is critical and the response to the appeal for funds has not been as good as in the past. The Pettis County goal was $17,450, all of which was needed to carry out the blood collection program, services to the armed forces and veterans, and disaster relief. Then after the seven state tornado of last week, the county was asked for another 10 per cent making a total of approximately $19,000. To date the funds received total $11,000.

The local chapter is appealing to everyone in Pettis County to make additional contributions. No other organization gives as many services for the relief of human suffering as the American Red Cross. Many persons in this community are helped each year. The area has been anxious to see the Sedalia Air Force Base reopened, but it must accept the responsibility of providing Red Cross services to these young men and their families.

If the county does not meet its quota this year, certain services will have to be reduced. People here at home will not be cared for as well as usual.

It is up to each and everyone to answer the call. "When you are asked, won't you increase your gift to the American Red Cross?" is the appeal of the fund committee.

Ike Set To Leave Command

Reports Indicate He Will Quit Post After Final Check Of SHAPE Nations

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE, March 29—(AP)—Gen. Eisenhower may make a flying farewell tour in the next six weeks to the capitals of the United States' European Allies. Officers at SHAPE said today "it is a possibility."

Guessing here is that Eisenhower, a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, will resign his Supreme Allied Command sometime in late May and return to the United States.

The General has not been in some of the capitals of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) since he arrived in Europe more than a year ago to take over as commander.

On a trip early this month to Greece and Turkey, the newest NATO members, Eisenhower remarked in Athens "I hope to come back in the spring." He also is known to have promised government leaders in some other nations of the alliance that he would visit them again.

Tour To Be Extensive

The tour probably would include visits to Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Britain, Portugal, Italy, Turkey and Greece. France, Denmark, Iceland, Canada and the United States round out the alliance.

If the General does plan to resign and go home in late May, he might use this last tour as a means of getting the approval of NATO governments for his replacement.

Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, the chief of staff most mentioned in speculation here on Eisenhower's successor, probably would go with him.

Gruenther returned to Supreme Headquarters today from Washington after testifying before Senate and House committees on new foreign aid appropriations.

Gruenther's appearance before Congress, like his appearance in the same role at a recent conference of NATO ministers at Lisbon, is interpreted by many as a deliberate assignment by Eisenhower to let his candidate for his own job be seen by the men who will have to approve him. Reports from both Lisbon and Washington indicated he made favorable impressions.

Gruenther himself has been described as reluctant to take over the job if it is offered, and has even been quoted as saying that either Britain's Field Marshal Lord Montgomery or French Gen. Alphonse Juin, both senior to him, would be better choices.

US To Hold Command

In the face of U. S. Congressional insistence ,however, there is little doubt the NATO nations will approve having an American succeed Eisenhower in command of Allied military forces.

Montgomery and Juin are known to be willing to serve under Gruenther, 52, a four-star general who has spent his entire military career in staff posts instead of in an active command. Eisenhower regards Gruenther as "the smartest brain in any army."

It appears a good guess that Eisenhower will start drafting his letter of resignation soon to allow time for President Truman's acceptance and the approval of the other 13 governments. The President made it clear two weeks ago that Eisenhower's resignation was for the general to decide and that he would comply with any request for relief the general may make.

Kansas City Man Hurt In Wreck Near Dresden

Clarence Muessig, Kansas City was injured painfully about 1:30 p.m. Saturday, when a wheel came off of his car, a 1940 Studebaker coach, and caused it to crash into a ditch. The accident occurred about three miles west of Dresden on Highway 50.

Muessig was brought to Sedalia to the Bothwell Hospital, where Dr. Carl Siegel rendered medial treatment. He suffered facial bruises and cuts. He was kept at the hospital for further observation.

Driver Leaves Scene Of North 65 Accident

Mrs. Eddie Lower, 32nd and Ohio, while driving her husband's 1940 Chevrolet on north Highway 65 four five miles from Sedalia was hit by a 1936 Chevrolet at 8:32 p. m. Saturday. The other car's driver was not seen after the accident. The State Patrol obtained the license number and are now in search of the driver and anyone who might have been with him.

Mrs. Lower and her three children, Karen Sue, Donna and Marilyn, received slight cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Lower was headed north and was met by the other car.

State Patrolman Earl Gregory investigated the accident.

The Brandts are moving to Texas City, Tex., and had to find a new owner for the dog. More than 150 requests to adopt Chris were received after the dog's picture appeared in the Topeka Daily Capital. GOP Race Particularly Intensive

Candidates Wind-Up Wisconsin Campaign

MILWAUKEE, March 29—(AP)—One of the most intensive political campaigns in history came to a climax tonight with major appeals from all three principal Republican candidates, battling for votes in the Wisconsin presidential primary.

The election is next Tuesday.

Gov. Earl Warren, of California, Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, and ex-Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota are the main GOP contenders for 30 delegates to the July nominating convention.

As the campaign virtually ended, they said —

Taft—"I think I am all right in most of the counties in the state, but I don't know about Milwaukee County." Taft said he thought he would win handily, and some of his managers have estimated he would capture 22 or 24 of the total 30 delegates.

Warren—"I am very much encouraged with the results of the last week, but I wouldn't want to make an appraisal of the outcome of the election in any detail."

Stassen Feels Optimistic

Stassen said he never makes estimates of the outcome of an election but he expressed optimism.

Sen. Estes Kefauver, of Tennessee, competing against two other Democratic slates, each claiming to represent Pres. Truman, has already left Wisconsin.

Stassen has made tentative plans to go from here to Nebraska Sunday night. Warren returns to California Sunday. Stassen's office announced he would come back to three central Wisconsin cities, flying in by helicopter, on Monday.

Taft and Warren, speaking in Milwaukee Saturday night, both concentrated on foreign policy questions in their final major appeals. Stassen discussed the campaign, itself, with particular reference to his own unprecedented action last week.

In that move, he announced he would turn over half of the total Wisconsin delegates he wins to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on the first ballot at the GOP presidential nominating convention. Later he said he would "consult" with his Minnesota delegates, already elected, about doing the same thing with them.

The effort to capitalize on Eisenhower's popularity—which politicians say is very great in Wisconsin—has caused a considerable degree of confusion ahead of Tuesday's election.

Two of the slates, Stassen's and Warren's, have been competing for that vote. Political advertisements are telling the people "A vote for Warren is a vote for Eisenhower."

Warren, himself, has stated he is not running as a stand-in for Eisenhower. His delegates, however, claim his is really the Eisenhower group.

Eisenhower Not In Race

Eisenhower is not entered in the Wisconsin election. Write-in votes are not counted.

Taft, commenting on the maneuvers between the Warren and Stassen groups, called them "hybrid tickets." In a speech in Milwaukee, he said, "in one case, a candidate has run out on his deligates, and in the other, the delegates have run out on the candidate."

Stassen said in his speech tonight: "In view of the strong second choice for Gen. Eisenhower indicated by the people of my home state of Minnesota when they gave me their first choice, I decided that the fair and right and wise things to do was to give the voters of Wisconsin who wish to support Gen. Eisenhower an opportunity to do so."

Taft, he said, has become a "weak standard bearer" for the Republicans.

He continued, "Gov. Earl Warren is a fine fellow, but it must be remembered that in that bad defeat of our Republican party in 1948, he did not even carry his own state of California."

Mild Weather Covers Most Of The Nation

By The Associated Press

Fair and mild weather prevailed over most of the nation Saturday, but winter's stamp still covered large areas in the north.

Mullen Pass, Idaho reported 115 inches of snow on the ground; Stampede Pass in the Cascades of Washington, 108, and Duluth, Minn., 26 inches.

Snow still covers most of the Dakotas, Minnesota, the northern lakes region and the higher slopes of the Rockies.

Rain on the northern Pacific coast and mixed rain and snow in Ohio and Pennsylvania marked the only general areas of precipitation Saturday.

Temperatures were generally higher from the western plateau states to the Ohio Valley, but some what cooler weather returned to the Pacific coast and north and central Atlantic states.

Grand Marais, Mich., was the coldest spot in the nation with an early morning temperature of 3 above zero.

Word Electrifies Party Politicians

WASHINGTON, March 29— (AP) — President Truman announced tonight he will not be a candidate for re-election.

He electrified the annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner at the National Guard Armory by declaring:

"I shall not be a candidate for re-election."

A chorus of "noes" broke out among the 5,000 Democratic politicians as the historic pronouncement was made.

It came as an off-the-cuff interpolation in his prepared address, which had contained no intimation of his intentions.

"I do not believe it is my duty to spend another term in the White House," the chief executive said.

A second before that he had declared:

"I have served my country long and I believe honestly."

Although the announcement obviously took most of the diners by surprise, several cabinet members at the speakers table appeared unastonished.

Secretary of State Acheson didn't so much as blink at the announcement. And Attorney General McGrath began shaking hands with well-wishers with no sign that Truman's announcement had surprised him.

Stevenson Had No Warning

Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, who has been reported to be Truman's choice for the Democratic presidential nominee, was asked if the President's declaration made any change in the governor's position.

"It was all a surprise to me," Stevenson told a reporter. "I am still a candidate for the governor of Illinois and nothing else."

Asked if he would accept the Democratic nomination, Stevenson said:

"I'll cross that bridge when I come to it."

"This breaks our hearts," said Attorney General McGrath when newsmen asked him for comment.

Senator Humphrey (D-Minn), a strong administration supporter, said he had expected the announcement "for a long time, but I didn't look for it tonight."

Humphrey added that the President's action "had opened up the picture to a number of good presidential possibilities."

Here are the exact words in which the President made the announcement of world-wide import.

"I shall not be a candidate for re-election. I have served my country long and I think efficiently and honestly.

My Duty Is Done

"I shall not accept a renomination. I do not feel that it is my duty to spend another four years in the White House."

(Cries of no, no, from the floor).

"We must always remember the things the Democratic party has done, and the high ideals that have made it great.

In his speech the President lambasted the Republicans as "fakers" and phony propagandists indicating he will be on the hustings to campaign for the man the party nominates to succeed him.

But the President did not give the nod, in any public way at least, to Gov. Stevenson or any of the other men called possibilities for the nomination.

Picturing his party as the party of "good government," he declared that "whoever the Democratic nominee for President may be this

Allies Charge Reds Sidestep Russian Issue

MUNSAN, Sunday, March 30—(AP)—An Allied spokesman today said the Reds seemed to be sidestepping a full-dress argument on Russia's role in post-armistice Korea until the prisoner exchange issue is settled.

The two major issues were on the table again today in talks opening at 11 a. m., (8 p. m., CST, Saturday) at Panmunjom.

Lt. Col. Joseph J. Borchert told correspondents that Communist staff officers in the truce supervision meeting spent nearly two hours Friday in discussing the use of two words in the truce draft.

They bickered over the Korean word for Korea. The Reds want "chosen," the Allies, "Han Kuk." The Communists agreed, however, to the Allied choice for United Nations, "Kuk Che Yon Hap."

Red staff officers remained firm on their demand that Russia be okayed as one of six neutral nations to observe truce conditions in Korea.

"I would guess it was for any purpose that would help their side propaganda-wise," an Allied staff officer told correspondents. "For trading material, if they want to use it, or for just standing still.

Kremlin Knows Answer

"The Kremlin is the only one that knows."

The U. N. Command again proposed that the Reds drop Russia and the Allies would drop Norway as neutral observers. That would leave Poland and Czechoslovakia as Red choices and Sweden and Switzerland for the Allies.

The Red turned it down flatly without discussion.

The Saturday meeting on prisoner exchange lasted three hours but no report was made public under the news blackout pact. Negotiators are seeking some compromise of the Allied demand for voluntary instead of forced repatriation.

SEOUL, Sunday, March 30—(AP)—Red troops supported by heavy artillery and mortar fire drove an Allied raiding party off a hill twice Saturday on the western Korean front.

The Allied raiders moved out into the "no-man's-land" west of Yonchon shortly after daylight and occupied the commanding height.

Three Communist squads forced the U. N. troops to withdraw after a sharp 10-minute skirmish. The Allies laid down an artillery barrage and regained the hi" shortly after noon. But the Communists poured down such a heavy artillery and mortar fire that the U. N. foot-sloggers again had to pull back.

Allied warplanes hammered Communist supply lines and front positions. Fog reduced the number of flights.

The Fifth Air Force in its weekly summary said it lost nine planes through Friday over North Korea.

Cooties, Lady Bugs Hold Meetings Here

The Military Order of the Cootie Grand Pup Tent of Missouri, and the Military Order of Lady Bugs, Royal Circle of Missouri, held their quarterly council of administration in Sedalia Saturday evening, beginning with a banquet at St. Patrick' school hall at 7 p. m.

The Lady Bugs met in the school hall immediately following the banquet, and the Cooties gathered in the Ambassador Room at the Bothwell Hotel.

There was a parade at 10:30 p. m. which provided the crowded streets with entertainment. The Cooties directed traffic on Ohio Streets from 8 p. m. until the parade began.

Sen. Pepper Taken Sick

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Claude Pepper, former Democratic senator from Florida, was taken ill tonight while attending the Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner but apparently was not in serious condition.

Mrs. Pepper said she believed her husband was suffering from a virus infection.

Still Water Runs Deep

HARVE, Mont., March 29—(AP)—George Lapas didn't want to take a chance on getting through a large puddle of water in the road. So he wheeled his car off the road to bypass it.

Lapas swam out of the six-foot deep water-filled ditch.

Monday's Talks Carry Hopes Of Stopping Steel Walkout

WASHINGTON, March 29—(AP)—The threat of a steel strike on April 8 still hung over the nation tonight, but some officials were hopeful it will be averted.

Chief hope for avoiding it rested on producer-union talks starting in New York Monday.

These talks led Secretary of Labor Tobin to predict tonight tonight that no strike will take place, and steel production will continue uninterrupted until mid-1953 at least.

"I am sure no strike will occur at this hour," Tobin said in an interview.

"With the six biggest steel companies calling a meeting with the unions to negotiate, it looks very much like there will be a peaceful settlement within the framework of the proposals of the Wage Stabilization Board.

'Both Groups Patriotic'

"Both industry and labor are patriotic groups, and I believe they will reach a settlement which will guarantee full continuous steel production through June, 1953."

The period referred to by Tobin would be the 18-month contract period.

Six major steel companies and Philip Murray's CIO steelworkers union are due to sit down together in New York (Hotel Roosevelt) to talk over terms of a new contract which would end the long dispute centering chiefly around wages. There will be 16 representatives on each side.

Unless the negotiations are productive, emergency action by President Truman appeared to be the only way of avoiding a showdown.

The special Monday session between industry leaders, Murray and his aides—an unusual procedure—was announced yesterday.

A Tipoff Rumored

The announcement had been taken in many quarters as a sign that the government may have given the industry some tipoff that it could expect to win approval of price hikes which would help meet the added costs involved in the recommendations which the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) has made to settle the lengthy dispute.

But spokesman for Charles E. Wilson's Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) denied today that any such assurances prompted the apparent peace overture, which followed a break-off of separate talks between the producers and the union.

Unofficially, however, some government officials were reported to be expecting a steel price increase, perhaps up to $5 a ton. But other sources said Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putman and Price Directork Ellis Arnall were standing firm against such price boosts.

Figures Vary

Industry sources have contended they would have to raise prices about $12 a ton to meet the recommendations of the WSB. Murray has said $2 a ton would do it. Most government officials put the figure needed at $4 to $5 a ton.

Steel-Stealing Brings Fine

FREEPORT, Ill. (AP)—Four teen age youths had a good thing here while it lasted. They admitted taking more than 700 pounds of railroad steel from the Illinios Central's property and selling it to a junk dealer. The stolen metal included angle irons, tie plates, spikes and brake shoes.

Police Magistrate William E. Kintzel assessed $5 fines and asked each youth to earn that amount himself.

Third Ward Demo Meeting Attracts 150

"We can be proud of our candidates as a group of citizens in whom we can really have confidence," Henry C. Salveter told a crowd of over 150 Democrats at the Third Ward meeting at Washington School Friday night.

"Too often we think of 'government' as being something far away; something that we have no contact with. Actually our great privilege of being American citizens carries with it a responsibility for our government. That is especially true of our city government because we come in contact with it every day and know how it is operating," Salveter said.

"It is our responsibility to see that our city government is a good, efficient and competent one. But here again we must realize that our 'government' can be no better than the men we put in public office. To get good, efficient government, we must elect good efficient men," he addad.

"Our Democratic candidates, without exception, meet those requirements," Salveter told the group. "Add their unquestioned honesty and their unswerving integrity, and we have a group of candidates on whom we can rely; a group of candidates whose word is good; a group of candidates who will keep their promise of giving us a good, progressive, governmental program. These candidates believe in a program o planned street improvements, which is an absolute necessity at this time. They believe in park and recreational development, fire protection, and a business-like government which will give us more return for our tax money."

Dr. Ira M. White, candidate for alderman in the Third Ward, expressed his thanks to all the people for the support and help he is receiving in his campaign.

Paul Jenkins, candidate for the school board, presided over the meeting and introduced W. C. Cramer, city Democratic chairman, who introduced all the candidates. Other interested Democrats made short talks.

Clinic Room Equipped at Hubbard School

The Hubbard School Booster Club met Thursday, March 27, in the library at Hubbard High School with the president, Mrs. D. J. Gerhardt, presiding. Mrs. Gerhardt reported that $20 was cleared on the pre-St. Patrick's Day tea sponsored by the club March 16.

The purpose of the tea was to secure finances to equip the clinic room bed at Hubbard School with new linen.

During the meeting, Mrs. Carl Abbott and Mrs. Vincent Banks, presented the school with new sheets, blankets and pillow cases. This is the first time in the history of Hubbard School that the parents, patrons and friends have attempted to fix a clinic room for children who might become ill after reaching school.

Mrs. John Murrell, the Sedalia public school nurse, was working in the clinic room at the time those parents dressed-up the bed. She thought it was a fine gesture on the part of the parents and showed the splendid relationship between the school and the community.

Solve Housing Shortage With Homes That Can Be Moved From City to City

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is trying to solve the defense housing shortage with homes which can be dismantled and whisked from city to city as needs change.

The Housing and Home Finance Agency today announced the selection of seven types of mobile dwellings for a "trial run" program. They were picked from 36 designs submitted.

The homes being studied are two and three bedroom units, the agency said, "designed for long-term use, utilizing a minimum of critical materials and adapted to speed erection with limited manpower."

The houses submitted were required to be easily movable from one location to another "without substantial use of additional materials and with a limited amount of additional manpower."

"Initial production and installation costs was required to be no more than that of conventional fixed-to-site housing of comparable quality," the agency said.

Administrator Raymond M. Foley said his agency hoped to learn the latest and best ideas and systems for movable housing to serve defense areas where the need is temporary.

Some test houses will be purchased by the Public Housing Administration and installed in critical defense housing areas.

Shirley and Glorya, 26, corroborated each other's cruelty charges against the George brothers.

"I'd always hear Harry yelling a Glorya," said Shirley.

Both left their husbands on Aug. 17. They had been married in a double ceremony on Christmas Eve, 1950.

BALANCING A BUDGET comes naturally to Frank Wrenick of Evanston, Illinois, shown here with his wife, Sarah. Frank is an accountant in the General Office of the Standard Oil Company. So that, in addition to helping keep track of the family finances, Frank helps keep good track of Standard Oil's finances. And here is how he explains what happened to the money we took in during 1951.

"Where does the money go?"

"Ever try to explain to your wife what happened to all the money you've earned in a year's time? Well, pleasant or not, reviewing expenditures is something every family has to contend with. And every business, too. I know. I'm in the accounting department of Standard Oil, and I've put in many an hour on the annual profit and loss statement for Standard Oil and its subsidiary companies. I've found that the problems of company finances are a lot like personal financial problems.

"Like you, we took in a certain amount of money during 1951. In our case, $1,764,930,319 to be exact. And here's what happened to it . . .

"Over half, or 58%, represented the cost of things we had to buy such as crude oil, materials, and services, plus charges made for wear and tear. A great deal of the money we spent went eventually into the payrolls of the thousands of companies who supply us—and so helped maintain many other businesses in thousands of communities.

"Our next biggest item at Standard—even bigger than our payroll—was for taxes. In fact, 19.1% of what we took in was paid out in taxes, including our own taxes and those we collect from our customers for national, state and local governments. And that figure does not include the many 'hidden' taxes which both you and we pay!

"Wages, salaries and benefits for our 49,700 employees accounted for 14.5% of what the company took in.

"At this point, all costs of doing business have been taken care of. And here's what happened to the remaining 8.4% of the money . . .

"We used 5.9% to improve our service to our customers, through investment in oil wells, refineries, service stations, etc.

"The balance, or 2.5%, was paid in dividends to Standard Oil's 116,800 stockholder-owners, including over 24,000 of us who are employees.

"Everything considered, it was a good year. That's where all the money went and we feel sure you'll agree it was used to serve you well."

Standard Oil Company

MONEY WELL SPENT assures good wages and steady work for our 49,700 employees—one of whom is Preston Chalk of our Wood River, Illinois, refinery. In recent years, two-thirds of our profits have been plowed back into the business, so that today each Standard Oil employee is backed by an average investment of $31,400 in tools and equipment, which helps him to produce more, earn more and have steadier work.

MONEY WELL SPENT assures a fair return on the investment of S. Dexter Hastings of Green Bay, Wisconsin—one of our 116,800 stockholder-owners. Last year our stockholders received dividends equal to 2.5% of what we took in. No one individual owns so much as 1% of our stock. No one of the institutional owners, including many educational and charitable organizations, owns so much as 4% of our stock.

MONEY WELL SPENT assures more progress in helping dealers like Ralph Nolan keep customers like Raymond Morris rolling. The many thousands of independent businessmen who are Standard Oil dealers offer you quality petroleum products at reasonable prices. Gasoline, for example, now sells at approximately 1925 prices; (only the tax is higher). Yet, two gallons today do the work that then took three.

Farm Prices Drop For Third Month In Row; Down 5.5

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prices for farm products have dropped for the third straight month —about 5.5 per cent for the 90-day period.

The Agriculture Department reported a decline of about one-third of 1 per cent between mid-February and mid-March. That brought prices about 8 per cent below those of a year ago.

The biggest drops last month were in dairy products and meat animals. Slight gains were reported for truck crops, fruits and food grains.

Prices received by farmers in mid-March stood at 288 per cent of the 1910-14 average, the highest on record. However, this is about the same as a month earlier and a year ago.

Most farm prices were reported 100 per cent of parity — as in the month previous — compared to 111 a year ago and a 122 record in October, 1946.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices. It is designed to maintain farm income on a basis equally fair to farmers and those who buy their products.

Only nine commodities brought parity or more in mid-March — cotton, milk, rye, butterfat, potatoes, sweet potatoes, beef cattle, lambs and veal calves.

Description Given Of Newest $10 Bills Now Being Passed

Counterfeit $10 bills have been floating around parts of Missouri recently and the Treasury Department gives this description of the bills so anyone may be able to identify them:

They are all of $10 denomination issued on the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. The check letter and face plate number is C43. The back plate number is 121 and the serial number is H10059760L.

"This note is printed on paper slightly heavier and smoother than the genuine. Bright red ink strokes appear on the face to simulate the genuine fibre. Some of the bills are darker over-all than the genuine, having been artifically colored. Money handlers should detect this note without difficulty.

"If you get one of these bills, keep it in your possession; delay the passer if possible under some reasonable excuse and telephone the police. Write down a description of the passer if he leaves; try to get the license number of any car used."

How to Make Money Discussed by Club

Nineteen members of the Georgetown 4-H Club answered roll call by naming a tree which grows near their home.

Jincy Dunham presided over the meeting and a discussion was held on how to make money. A committee was appointed to plan the radio program.

Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be April 21.

Strictly Accidental

MINNEAPOLIS Minn. (AP) — The State Department of Weights and Measures ordered a bundle of wiping rags from the Pink Supply Co. here.

The bundle turned out to be eight pounds short of the billed weight. The Pink Supply Company showed up in court here, accused of shortweighting.

However, Municipal Judge Tom Bergin ruled it was obvious no one with criminal intent would pick on such a customer. He dismissed the charge.

New Wolf-Coyote Bounty Raids County Treasuries in State

JEFFERSON CITY, (AP)—That sneaky raider of the farmers' chicken coops, the coyote, now is raiding county treasuries.

The fact he's doing it posthumously doesn't seem to lessen the shock.

County courts are blaming the Missouri Legislature for the inroads on their already skimpy treasuries. Here's what happened:

Under the old law it was up to the county courts whether to pay up to $20 bounty on adult wolves or coyotes. And if they did the state would pay half the cost.

But last year the Legislature passed a law hiking the bounty to $30, with the state paying $20 on each scalp.

The new law requires that all county courts pay the bounty whether they want to or not. It became effective March 18 and already county clerks and some county judges are crying for relief.

They're blaming the legislature for what they hope is just a horrible mistake.

A farmer who killed a coyote in the old days might scalp the animal and inquire as to whether his county paid a bounty. If it didn't but a neighboring county did, he might find reason to go over there on business. He'd take the coyote scalp along.

But now, the clerks complain, hunters and farmers and everyone else is on the lookout for those $30 critters.

Some northern Missouri county officers are even suggesting maybe the scalps come from Iowa coyotes. It's against the new law to cart any foreign wolves into Missouri but, well, for $30 . .

That might hold true for other surrounding states, too. The Iowa bounty is $10 for full grown coyotes. There's none in Arkansas.

All Missouri counties apparently don't know yet what they're in for.

L. T. Micke of Owensville, Mo., said he caught an adult coyote and two pups. He took them to the Garsconade county court, plumped them down and demanded $40 —$30 for the adult and $5 for each of the pups.

Nope, the court said, $20 for the big one and $5 each for the youngsters. He asked the county court if it had heard about the new law. Nope, said the court again.

So Micke asked the Conservation Commission to explain things to the court. The commission turned that one over to the Secretary of State, who is supposed to keep track of all the laws the legislature passes.

There seems to be a little difficulty down in Jasper County too. Gene Frost, the county prosecuting attorney, asked for an opinion from the attorney generals' office. He said the county clerk wanted to know.

The opinion said all counties must pay the bounty.

The law also might force the county courts to buy deep freezes. It specifies the scalps must be kept by the county clerk until the next meeting of the court. Many of them meet only once a month. And a coyote scalp can get mighty strong in a month.

Last year 106 of Missouri's 114 counties paid bounties on wolves. The total cost was $54,746 with the state footing half the bill.

Even with the higher bounty, Conservation Commission experts don't figure the coyote is headed for extermination. Missouri has had some sort of bounty on the varmints for all but the first three of its 130 years as a state. Despite that the coyote population continues to grow and spread into new sections.

The experts say the prairie wolf just gets used to the ways of civilized man and is managing to get along famously despite the price on his head.

Nine $30 Bounties Paid by Pettis County in 12 Days

Nine $30 bounties have been paid by the Pettis County Court, through County Clerk James Green, on old wolf scalps taken to the office of the county clerk since the new law increasing bounty awards went into effect on March 18. The old bounty was $10 per scalp.

Four young wolf scalps have been turned in by Donald Bockelman for which he has received $20, or $1 more on each bounty than previous to the new low which changed the young wolf scalps bounty from $4 to $5.

Old wolf scalp bounties have been collected by Cecil Charles, Parker Charles, S. T. Todd, Herman Opfer, Pete McFarland, W. M. Riecke, G. L. Richardson, Herman Farris and Paul Klein.

Social Security Rules Important To All Workers

The new starting date for figuring old-age and survivors insurance benefit payments is important to everyone now employed or self-employed in work covered by social security.

In explanation of this statement, Scott Webber, manager of the Sedalia social security office, points out that work after 1950 can be used alone for figuring the amount of the benefit payment. Everyone who has been in work covered by social security continuously since Jan. 1, 1951, will be fully insured by the middle of the present year. If he reaches age 65 and decides to retire, he will be eligible for old-age benefit payments; if he should die after a year and a half of covered work after 1950, his survivors can get benefit payments. He and his family will have this insurance protection until July 1954. They will continue to have this protection if he stays in covered work for at least one-half the time after 1950 and up to the time of retirement at age 65 or later, or up to the time of his death.

Mr. Webber advises everyone who plans to retire during 1952 to visit the Sedalia social security office before making a decision. He points out that an employed person will not immediately get the highest benefit payments if he files his claim during 1952. Moreover, he says, "Self-employment earnings for the year in which a claim is filed are not used to figure the amount of the payments. It may be to the advantage of both the employed and self-employed insured person to defer filing a claim until January 1953."

Gamma Sigma Delta accepts for membership not more than 15 percent of the upper 25 percent of graduating seniors in agriculture and related sciences. Officers are graduates or faculty members.

5,337,728 Cars Made In US During 1951; 5,060,903 Are Sold

DETROIT (AP)—The nation's auto companies built 5,337,729 passenger automobiles last year and sold 5,060,903 of them.

Production-wise it isn't likely they will do as well this year; but automotive circles now are revising upward their original output estimates of four million new passenger cars. The estimates now range up to 4¾ million with considerably more assurance than was apparent a month ago.

One apparent certainty now is that combined car and truck output this year will go above the five-million unit mark. That total has been reached only five times in the industry's history—four times since World War II.

Mouse Fouls Up Tractor

VERNON, Neb. (AP) — A field mouse immobilized a tractor belonging to Harvey Fritz.

When the tractor's engine locked, Fritz took the tractor to mechanics who removed the engine head and found a quantity of finely-pulverized corn above the piston in the firing chamber.

The sabotaging mouse had climbed in through the manifold into the head and had hidden kernels of corn in the cylinder.

Governors of All States Asked to Give Views on Primaries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Governors of the 48 states have been asked to give their opinions of a proposal for nationwide presidential primaries.

Congress is considering bills which would direct the attorney general to cooperate with states in conducting such primaries.

The results would not be binding on party conventions, which still would nominate candidates for president and vice president, but Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) predicted they would have a "strong persuavive influence" on selection of nominees.

Chairman Hayden (D-Ariz) of the Senate Rules Committee directed sending of queries to the governors.

Sen. Douglas, a sponsor of the legislation, called the move "a constructive step" in testimony yesterday before Hayden's committee.

Collect 11 Million In Back Taxes From Chicago Racketeers

CHICAGO (AP)—Nearly 11 million dollars in back income taxes has been collected from racketeers in the Chicago area since July 1, internal revenue agents disclosed yesterday.

Delford L. Olsen, head of the Special Intelligence Division of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, said the money was collected after investigation by the bureau's special racket squad. He said the largest single payment of 1,168 cases investigated was $900,000, some 3,550 cases are pending, Olsen said.

Olsen said in cases where evasion appears to be aggravated and willful, prosecution will be recommended.

Pen Collector

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP)—From a collection which he values at $50,000, Earl Cady, 62, could use a different pen each day for the next 10 years.

It was his interest in this hobby, he says, which contributed largely to restoration of his health after a heart attack forced his retirement.

The collection of some 4,000 pens started in earnest several years ago when, because of illness, Cady sold his insurance business in Bakersfield, Calif., and moved to this ocean resort. He began collecting pens on a small scale in 1940.

Red Cross Needs More Funds To Aid Flood, Wind Victims

The tornadoes of last week are no longer front page news, but the tragedies caused by those tornadoes are still first with their victims.

In order to cope with the problems engendered by the tornadoes, those of feeding and sheltering the homeless, and caring for the sick and injured, the American Red Cross has asked the Pettis County Chapter to raise its fund quota ten per cent of the original figure.

This will mean that the people of the county and Sedalia must give more and give again so that the quota in its entirety may be raised.

Blood Is Delivered

Red Cross is still helping the families who were flooded out last summer and is now helping the families who were blown up last week.

Among other things, whole blood plasma have been delivered to the stricken areas by plane, thus proving again that when you give blood, you give life to someone. The unit will be back in Sedalia May 9 and 10. Make reservations now, and the place is the same, the Armory, Ninth and Ohio.

Mrs. A. A. Studebaker, chairman of the local blood program, attended a meeting in Warrensburg last Wednesday with the planning committee to discuss various aspects of the blood program. Mrs. Studebaker is secretary of this committee.

New First Aid Class

Another class in Red Cross first aid has been organized by the chairman, Michael Wolfel, with members of the South Abel Extension Club as participants. W. E. Bruce will instruct.

Hal Boyle's Column—

City Throws Party for Flower --Azalea, 'Gen Lee With Petals'

By HAL BOYLE

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Any excuse for throwing a party is a good one.

But they have a particularly fine excuse for an annual community wide party here to honor a flower.

The flower is the azalea. It is as symbolic to the people of historic Cape Fear as the magnolia is to the deeper South.

"The azalea is Robert E. Lee with petals," said one old resident, summing up the feeling Tarheels have for these bushes which turn the countryside into a rainbow of bloom.

Right now old Wilmington, where Lord Cornwallis once had his headquarters, George Washington danced, and the father of Woodrow Wilson preached, is flooded with thousands of visitors who have come to pay homage to a flower.

There are a lot of other attractions during the unique 4-day festival. They call out the Army, the Navy and the Marines to march in parades, they dance in the streets at night, they fly in a Hollywood actress and crown her queen, they hold folk music concerts and a $10,000 golf tournament.

But the real show is a million or more azalea plants just reaching peak beauty. That is what 100,000 nature lovers really come to see, and it is a tremendous demonstration of the pride Carolinians have in their land, a mystic kinship with the soil built up through nearly 300 years.

Nobody appreciates his home earth more—or brags about it less—than a Tarheel. He will permit a stranger to admire it, but he doesn't care. It is enough for him that he himself has it to enjoy, as his grandpapy did before him.

The three great azalea meccas around Wilmington are Greenfield Lake, one of America's most lovely municipal parks, and two showplaces—Airlie Gardens and famous old Orton Plantation.

All are orchestras of color now, studded with hundreds of varieties of azaleas, as if the ground had erupted in palettes of paint—rich red, pink, white, lavender, and orange.

Dominating the 155 acres of Airlie Gardens is a 39-room mansion built by Pembroke Jones, a 19th century rice magnate and friend of banker J. P. Morgan. It contains a staircase from Sir Walter Raleigh's home in England.

W. Albert Corbett, an industrialist, bought the estate for a home in 1947, but the gardens are open to the public. It costs more than $25,000 a year to keep them flowering.

Rising from the midst of a carpet of riotous azaleas is one of the finest trees in the nation, a towering wide spreading live oak draped with Spanish moss.

It is a tree that looks like Father Time. Visitors come and stand under it in silence for a long time, looking almost reverently up at its tremendous wrinkled arms. "It makes you feel like you are in a cathedral," one said.

A lady who lives here says her husband is in love with the old oak, but she isn't jealous of it at all.

"They say oaks like it grow for 300 years, live for 300 years, and die for 300 years," she remarked. "The Airlie oak is in the middle 300 years. I'm glad of it because I'd hate to see my husband outlive that tree."

"It would be the death of him."

NEW YORK (AP)—Leaves from an oddity almanac:

Trying to find a place to park your car isn't the biggest drawback to living in a big city....Sinus trouble is....So says Dr. J. Thompson Stevens, a New York specialist....He estimates that sinus infections afflict four out of five people who live in towns of 25,000 or more population....No wonder the country smells nicer....

Speaking of smells, did you know perfumes once were ranked in value with gold?....An old Roman maxim advised, "Never leave your perfumes or wines to your heir.... Administer these yourself and let him have your money."...If your wife would like to make her own perfume, there is a formula in the Bible for what came to be known as "the Holy perfume"....The ingredients: sweet spices, stacte, onycha, galbanum....But just try to get your neighborhood druggist to fill that prescription today....

Male versus female department: There really are only 15 million licensed women automobile drivers in America....If the average male motorist (there are 45 million) thinks he has to dodge more than that number on an ordinary Sunday ride, it is just his imagination.... Do women really drive better than men?...Well, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey reports that surveys show women are less skillful but more careful behind the wheel....A taxicab driver's rejoinder: "Yeah, they drive so slow and cautious they cause everybody else to get into accidents."...

What's-what-in-science: A kind of trans-oceanic television isn't too far away....A scientist for the General Electric Co. says events can be photographed in Europe, the film transmitted here by radio facsimile and telecast to your home in a matter of hours....The acid test will be to see whether they can flash the picture of a new French cabinet over here before it is thrown out of office....

Nature department: Someone has found out that the new chlorophyll-derivative deodorants will cure even dogs of body odor and halitosis....This is bad news for rabbits....Chlorophyll is found in green plants....And from now on near-sighted bunnies are likely to mistake a hunting dog for a four-legged lettuce patch....How long are we going to go on confusing the animal world? . . . We pause for reply . . .

Facts-and-figures - for -people-who-like-to- win - barroom bets: Bet you didn't know that the world's tallest tree is a California redwood 364 feet high (not quite enough to provide shade for Texas) ....That tunesmith Cole Porter designs his own neckties....That spider threads are really cables, not just single strands, and spider silk is finer and stronger than that spun by silkworms....That there are 31 moons in the Solar System. ....That most states don't have a specific law against cannibalism... But other statutes in force don't encourage it.

Hopeful future note: Scientists successfully germinated two lotus seeds estimated by archaeologists to be 50,000 years old...Maybe this will lead to a way to make 40-year-old night club playboys grow up....

The almanac weather forecast: Political storms will afflict all parts of the United States, accompanied by verbal squalls reaching a peak intensity early in November. Clearing and sunny the rest of the year.

Summary of Steel Dispute

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Before the steel dispute gets more fouled up, here's a run-down on how it got that way.

Late last November Philip Murray's CIO steelworkers and the steel industry began talking about a pay increase.

The CIO wanted a boost of about 18½ cents an hour, plus other benefits. The steelworkers now average just under $2 an hour.

The steel industry said it couldn't grant such a raise unless the government, which controls wages and prices, let it raise prices, too.

The talks broke down. The union threatened to strike Jan. 1, one day after its contract with the industry ended.

President Truman could have delayed the strike 80 days by using the Taft-Hartley Act through which the government can get a court order forbidding a strike for about that length of time.

But the union would have been free to strike at the end of those 80 days if no settlement had been reached in that time. Besides, Truman has said publicly he doesn't like T-H.

So he asked the union and industry to let the Wage Stabilization Board, which sits on wages, to consider the case. And, until the board gave an opinion, Truman asked the union not to strike. It agreed.

The 18-man WSB—six members represent industry, six labor, and six the public—began hearing both sides. It held a number of sessions. And last week, on March 20, the labor and public members made a recommendation:

It would give the union, in installments, a pay boost of around 17½ cents an hour, plus other money benefits and a union shop. In a union shop all eligible employes must join to keep their jobs.

There is dispute on just how much the union would benefit under the WSB recommendations. One industry spokesman says the total might come to 42½ cents an hour. But this much was certain:

The WSB recommendation was simply an opinion. It wasn't compulsory on the union or on industry to accept. The union said it would accept.

But the industry said it couldn't grant the increase unless the government, through its Office of Price Stabilization, let it have a price increase, figured to run around $12 a ton by industry estimates. OPS officials had previously said the industry, out of its large profits, could afford a wage increase without raising prices.

The net result: the union and the industry are back where they started last November, except that the union has the recommendation of WSB to support its demands, for whatever that is worth.

The big question: would the pay boost recommended by WSB, if it went into effect, smash the government's efforts to stabilize wages? WSB Chairman Nathan Feinsinger says there's nothing unstabilizing about it. Defense Mobilizer Charles Wilson says it's a threat to stabilization.

If the union wins, other unions probably will troop in, looking for more of the same. And if steel prices go up very far, other industries which depend on steel will certainly want to raise their prices.

Once again the government has to try to find a solution.

Ex-Convict's Lesson Sinks In

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Two 18-year-old boys, suspected of larceny, listened to an ex-convict tell of his "12 wasted years" in San Quentin, then led police to several hundred dollars worth of loot.

Police Chief John Fred said the pair were arrested for car prowling. Their talk with the ex-convict, who shortly after was released from a vagrancy charge, was arranged by Judge John W. Mahan.

The ex-convict said, "San Quentin is full of boys who started like you. It becomes a habit, and pretty quick it's the big house or the hot seat."

Worst Blizzard in 36 Years Hits British Isles

LONDON (AP)—The coldest spring blizzard in 36 years lashed the British Isles Saturday and snow and cold gripped most of Europe.

Shipping in the churning English Channel was virtually at a standstill.

Road and rail transportation in Southern England was blocked in many places by drifts piled as high as two feet. Three double-decker buses overturned on icy roads but no deaths were reported.

Air transportation into London was slowed. One plane from the United States was five hours late after bucking gale winds.

Barbara Makes Up With Tom Neal, Will Divorce Tone

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Barbara Payton has sued for a divorce from Franchot Tone and says she has made up with Tom Neal, who broke Tone's nose in a fight last summer over her affections.

By filing her suit the actress blocked the possibility of obtaining the divorce by default. Trial of his action without contest had been set for April 7.

Blonde Barbara told newsmen she was anxious to get the divorce out of the way and get on with her career. Barbara didn't mention anything about marriage in discussing Neal. She fluctuated between him and Tone several times before marrying Tone in her home town, Cloquet, Minn., last Sept. 28.

Wants Government Actually to Operate The Seized Railroads

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government should actually operate seized railroads instead of having only token control, as at present, says Sen. Murray (D-Mont).

He called the current seizure — to prevent a strike — unfair to railroad workers because the railroads continue to operate the lines. Court testimony has disclosed that the Army is now exercising its seizure with only 43 officers and a small staff of clerks.

Murray, chairman of the Senate Labor Committee, said he has introduced legislation to accomplish full government control.

Under the measure, he added, the President could set up a compensation board to determine payments to the railroads during seizure.

Cooper County Music Festival on April 4th

The Cooper county music festival will be held at Prairie Home April 4.

Contests will be held all day. A concert for the public will be presented 7:30 p. m. that evening.

The program will consist of numbers chosen by the judges from the day's contests and will close with numbers by the massed band, massed girl's glee club and massed mixed chorus of the county.

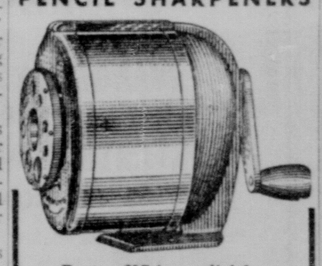

Miss Geraldine Tuefel, Sedalia, and Miss Geraldine Haldiman, Eldon, will be guest directors.

Pettis County Has $3,289 Cancer Goal

WITH CANCER CRUSADE — Leonard Peabody, Sedalia, has been named secretary-treasurer of the 1952 Crusade in Pettis County by the Rev. J. W. Watts, county chairman. Watts and Bob Wall, city chairman, report more workers are needed for the Crusade which opens Tuesday.

Pettis County's goal in the 1952 Cancer Crusade, which opens Tuesday, is $3,289 according to Bob Wall, city chairman for the drive, and the Rev. J. W. Watts, county chairman.

Donations may be mailed to Cancer, Postoffice Box 344, Sedalia.

Wall said today the American Cancer Society's national goal is $16 million. The funds will be used to support broad programs of research, services to cancer patients and public and professional education.

April again will be designated National Cancer Control Month by Presidential Proclamation and Act of Congress. A little more than $15,000,000 was contributed to the 1951 Cancer Crusade.

Mr. Wall said that the educational messages distributed by Crusade solicitors will carry important, lifesaving information.

"The magnitude of our task is indicated by statistics showing that cancer strikes one out of five Americans," he declared. "This fact makes education our most pressing problem. Once we have taught the public to recognize and act on cancer's danger signals, the cure rate is bound to take a sharp upward jump. We know that cancer is highly curable when it is detected early. Late diagnosis or delayed treatment is nearly always fatal."

'Thrillseeker' Tries to Derail Passenger Train

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—A "thrill-seeker" tried to derail a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train at a Columbus crossing early today. They put two steel rails across the track.

An 11-car train, carrying 200 passengers, banged into the rails at 60 miles an hour—throwing them 450 feet. But, the engine stayed on the track.

Badly damaged, the engine limped into Union Station.

A. F. Talerico, assistant trainmaster for the Pennsylvania, blamed the "thrill-seeker." He said the rails were 32 inches and 67 inches long and were placed at the intersection of the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio crossing.

The impact awakened many passengers. But, even the train crew didn't know what the train hit until investigators looked around.

The rails apparently came from a stack stored near the crossing. Talerico said persons living in five houses near the crossing could have been killed or injured — if the derailment had been successful.

Rhubard the Cat Wins Patsy Award For Animal Actors

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Top prize in the Patsy awards — comparable among animal movie actors to Oscars among humans—went last night to Rhubarb the cat.

"Patsy" stands for "Picture Animal Top Star of the Year." The awards are presented by the American Humane Association, whose local inspector, James Jack, announced that they were the result of 585 ballots among newsmen throughout the country.

Cheta, the chimp, led the cheering for a runner-up award he received. Other runner-up awards presented in ceremonies at the Carthay Circle Theater were:

Francis, the talking mule (top winner in the first Patsy awards last year); Diamond, a black horse; Corky, a dog of mixed ancestry, and Chinook, a white Alsatian dog.

A special award in honor of Richard C. Craven, who negotiated an agreement between the American Humane Association and movie producers some years ago, governing the use of animals in pictures, went to Smoky, the fighting stallion.

New Car Ferry Designed

ST. JOHN, N. B. (AP)—A special car ferry has been designed to cope with 30-foot tides in the Bay of Fundy to avoid the expense of building high wharves. The new vessel, a unique development in ferry service history, will have its own built-in ramps to land on beaches.

Plans for the new ferry call for a craft 92 feet long and capable of carrying 14 automobiles with their pasengers. Two diesel engines, with a pair of propellers at each end, will push the vessel along at a speed of 10-knots—fast enough to buck Fundy's strong tides.

BIG SHOT — Pvt. Robert C. Busch, of 27th Signal Company, New York National Guard, cleans up a king-sized M-1 rifle, and is only too glad that he doesn't have to pack the giant weapon on maneuvers. The eight-foot-long replica of the M-1 is used for training purposes at Albany, N. Y.

Second Class Postage Rates Go Up Tuesday

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Second-class postage rates will take a 10 per cent jump next Tuesday boosting publication mailings charges by an estimated $3 to $4 million a year.

The change marks a further step in the series of staggered postal increases voted by Congress last year.

For newspapers, magazines and other periodicals carrying the second-class rates, it will be the first of three progressive 10 per cent hikes, dated to take effect on April 1 of 1952, 1953 and 1954.

The new series of postal revisions was set in motion last January 1 when the penny postcard was dropped in favor of a two-cent card and increased charges were applied to individual third-class mailings of books, catalogs and seeds, and to special delivery, registered and insured mail and to collect-on-delivery service.

Effective July 1, the third-class rate increases will be extended to include bulk mailings of books, catalogs and seeds, and to circulars and miscellaneous merchandise, upping the minimum charge from 1 to 1½ cents per piece.

Parcel post rates were increased about 25 per cent last October 1 on an authority issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission after Congress passed this service item over to ICC for action.

President Truman has described all of the newly authorized postal increases as inadequate to cancel out the continuing post office deficit, which he estimated would reach $670 million in the coming fiscal year.

In his annual budget message in January, he recommended prompt further increases in rates generally to yield another $500 million in revenues. However, specific proposals have not yet been submitted and most Congressional leaders agree that it is unlikely that further rate hikes will be voted this year.

These are the second-class rate changes effective on mailings after 12:01 a. m. Tuesday:

On handling within county of publication: a newly-established minimum charge of ⅛ cent on each individually-addressed copy except where free in-county mailing privilege is applicable. Free within-county distribution continues for copies delivered by post-offices not having city or village letter-carrier service.

On handling outside county of publication: Total postage computed at the pound rates (½ to 7 cents per pound depending on zone), increased by 10 per cent. Periodicals of non-profit religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans' and fraternal organizations are exempt from this increase, continuing at their base rate of 1½ cents per pound, regardless of zone.

On both commercial and non-profit publications handled outside the home county, a newly established minimum charge of ⅛ cent on each individually-addressed copy.

On mailings by individuals other than publishers or authorized news agents, now 1 cent for each 2 ounces, an increase to 2 cents for the first 2 ounces and 1 cent for each additional 2 ounces, computed on each individually addressed copy, or package of unaddressed copies. Such senders, however, may use the parcel post (fourth-class) rates if these are lower.

Truman Announces He Will Not Run Again

year," he will have a proud and honorable record to run on.

The $100-a-plate dinner was held in the huge National Guard Armory. Trucks rushed the hot viands from the kitchens of two big hotels to the armory.

Truman let fly with a counter-attack on the issues of corruption and communism in government. He said that on both the Republicans will try to fool the voters with a "white is black" type of campaign.

Votes Prove Stand

The real test of who opposes communism and corruption, he said, is who votes against them—not just who talks against them.

Truman declared that government morality involves more than just an absence of wrong-doing—"it means a government that is fair to all."

He continued:

"I think it is just as immoral for the Congress to enact special tax favors into law as it is for a tax official to connive in a crooked tax return. It is just as immoral to use the law-making power of the government to enrich the few at the expense of the many as it is to steal money from the public treasury."

Truman said the Teapot Dome and Veterans' Administration scandals of the Republican administrations in the 1920's were bad enough, but that the attempt to sell Muscle Shoals to private interests and legislation which favored "the greed of monopoly and the trickery of Wall Street was a form of corruption that did the country more harm than Teapot Dome."

As for honesty in government, Truman said he has probably done more than any other President to reorganize the government efficiently and to extend the Civil Service System.

GOP Seeks Favors

"The Republicans make a great whoop and holler about the honesty of federal employes," he continued, "but they are usually the first to show up in a government office seeking special favors for special interests, and raising Cain if they can't get them."

As for the Communists-in-government charges, the President declared:

"The real test of anti-communism is whether we are willing to devote our resources and our strength to stopping Communist aggression and saving free people from its horrible tyranny. That kind of anti-communism takes money and courage—not just talk.

"And the next time you hear some of this loud anti-Communist talk from our Republican friends, ask them how they have voted—on aid to Greece, on the Marshall Plan, on the mutual security program. The chances are they voted to cut or cripple these all-important measures against communism.

"I say to you, in all seriousness, beware of those who pretend to be so violently anti-Communist in this country, and at the same time vote to appease communism abroad. In my book, that is talking out of both sides of the mouth at once; and I don't think the American people are going to be taken in by it."

The speech amounted to a kick-off for the hot campaigns ahead, whether or not the President is a candidate. But in his prepared address he did not refer to any of the candidates for the Republican nomination. And there was no hint of whom he might favor among the Democrats if he decides not to seek another White House term.

At the outset the Presidnt said that on of the things he liked about Jefferson-Jackson Day dinners is that they are political meetings.

"I like political meetings and I like politics," he said.

"Politics — good politics—is a public service. There is no life or occupation in which a man can find a greater opportunity to serve his community or his country.

"I have been in politics for more than 30 years, and I know that nothing else could have given me greater satisfaction."

Then he sailed into the Republicans.

The political situation at present, he said, may look complicated but actually the key to it can be found in the fact that the Republicans "have been out of office for 20 long years—and they are desperate to get back in control."

He added:

"For 20 years the Republicans have been wandering in a political desert—like camels looking for an oasis. And if they don't find it pretty soon, the Republican party may die out, altogether."

One of the reasons why the GOP has not won a presidential election since 1928, Truman said, is that it has been badly split on the issues and even now "every day you hear a new Republican theory of how to win the election in 1952.

"One theory they have is that they ought to come right out and say they are against all the advances the country has made since 1932," Truman said.

"This is the dinosaur theory of Republican strategy. They want to take us back to prehistoric times. Republicans of this school say—'Let's stop beating about the bush—let's say what we really believe. Let's say we're against social security—that we're against labor unions and good wages—that we're opposed to price supports for farmers—that we're against the government doing anything for anybody except big business.'

"Now I have a lot of sympathy for these Republicans," Truman continued. "They have been hushed up for a long time. They would certainly be happier if they could tell the truth for once and campaign for what they really believe. But it wouldn't be good for their party.

"This dinosaur school of Republican strategy would get only the dinosaur vote—and there aren't many dinosaurs left."

Still other Republicans, the President said, argue they can win if they oppose present foreign policies.

"There is one group, he said, which thinks it "would be popular to pull out of Korea, and to abandon Europe, and to let the United Nations go to smash."

"The trouble with this Republican theory is that the American people are a lot smarter than the Republicans who thought it up," Truman declared. "The American people have learned a lot from two World Wars and from the last seven years of working to keep the peace. They know that as long as communism is loose in the world we must have allies and we must resist aggression."

Grandy Winner Of News Award In Picture Of Year Contest

CHICAGO, March 29— (AP) — Francis Grandy, photographer for the Stars and Stripes, today was named winner of the news picture category in the ninth annual "News Pictures of the Year" competition.

His picture, "Well, I'll Be Darned!", was adjudged one of the nine best in the competition sponsored by the encyclopaedia Britannica and the University of Missouri School of Journalism. It was made available to Associated Press members.

Police Slay Bandit Outside Kansas City; Three Others Wounded

KANSAS CITY, March 29—(AP)—One man was killed and three other persons were wounded when officers investigated a tourist court holdup on highway 71 near here tonight. The holdup netted the bandits $40.

Police identified the dead man as Ben F. King, 18, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., one of the other bandits. Leroy Dreiling, was critically injured. The third bandit was identified as Berry Garrison, 16, of Kansas City.

In critical condition at Menorah Hospital was patrolman Kenneth F. Stuart, 38, Kansas City. He was wounded in the chest.

The fourth victim was an expectant mother, Mrs. Alta Carstens, 29. She, her husband Henry, and his parents operate the Four acre Motel. Mrs. Carstens was wounded twice, once in the left leg and once in the left hip. "Her condition was not believed critical.

Carstens told police one of the bandits pointed a weapon through an open window of one of the rooms in the main office and ordered him to open the door.

The first bandit and a companion entered, declaring "we want your money," Carstens said.

Meanwhile, C. E. Bockelman, sleeping in a back room, was awakened by the noise. He called police.

Officer James B. Hitchcock 35, Kansas City, said "Stuart and I arrived just as two men came out a door pushing this woman (Mrs. Carstens) ahead of them. I don't know who started the shooting. I think Stuart was shot from bushes at the rear of the building."

Hitchcock said both he and Stuart began shoting, but was not sure of the events thereafter. An auxiliary deputy caught one of the young robbers across the highway from the motel several minutes later.

GOP Chiefs Term Speech Empty Gesture

WASHINGTON, March 29—(AP)—Republicans accused President Truman of making "empty political gestures" tonight but Democrats appleauded his attack on the opposition party at a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner.

"The President says now at long last that he hates corruption in government just as much as we Republicans do, said Sen. Mundt (R-SD). "It seems to me it is just a case of verifying an ancient adage—the one that goes "familiarity breeds contempt.'

"So far as I can see he is only making empty political jestures with the election coming on."

He 'comes Out Swinging'

On the Democratic side, Sen. Humphrey of Minnesota said he was delighted that Truman had "come out swinging" against the Republicans. The President struck out at them as political "dinosaurs," "fakers," and phony propagandists in a campaign kick-off speech at the National Guard Armory here.

"The President is absolutely right," said Humphrey, "in saying most of the Republicans only do a lot of talking about fighting Communism. Some of them ought to hide their heads in shame for having voted to cut appropriations for this administration's fight to contain Communism."

Republican National Chairman Guy George Gabrielson accused Mr. Truman of "being careless with the truth." Gabrielson declared in a statement that Truman says he hates coruption, but that only a few months ago the President was "proclaiming that his grafting internal revenue collectors and his influence peddling cronies were 'honorable men.'

Mundt noted Truman's statement that the federal loyalty program keeps Communists out of government, and added:

"If he wants to do a good job in keeping them out and if he really hates corruption in government, let him cooperate with the committees of Congress which have never had much help from him in exposing those situations."

Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) said "One thing the Republicans didn't do is put the Communists in government, and we have done a lot to get them out. The President will have to admit that.

But Sen. Murray (D-Mont.) said the President had "made it clear that the Republicans have done nothing to make sure the Communists have been kept out of government." It has been the Democrats, said Murray, who have "varried on the battle."

Bob Kelly Injured In Car Wreck Here

Bob Kelly, a former Sedalian now residing in Kansas City, suffered an injury to his left arm when the car he was driving went into a ditch at Third and State Fair boulevard at 11:40 p.m. Saturday.

Kelly told officers he was driving along and turned out to miss what he thought was a car driving along without lights and the car went into the ditch.

He was taken to the Woodland hospital to be treated by Dr. H. O. Wilbur.

Local Wreck Injures Two From Kansas City

Two Kansas City men were injured about 11:30 p. m. Saturday in a collision between a 1952 Ford sedan and a 1951 truck, at Broadway and Wagner. The Ford sedan was badly damaged.

The Kansas Citians were Frank Davis, 33, driver of the car, and Jackson Brown, 32, a passenger. Davis suffered a possible fracture of the left leg below the knee and other bruises, while Brown suffered a bruised leg above the left ankle, a laceration on the right knee and head bruises.

Lester Stafford, Indianola, Ia., was the driver of the truck, which was loaded with bales of hay.

Davis was headed west on Broadway and Stafford was going east when they collided almost in intersection. The truck went into a ditch on the southside of the pavement and spilled its hay into the yard. The Ford was spun around, and left front part smashed in.

Davis and Brown were taken to the Bothwell hospital in the Gillespie ambulance and they were treated by Dr. Carl Siegel.

Katy Income Drops 32 Per Cent In '51

ST. LOUIS, March 29—(AP)—Net income for 1951 by the Missouri-Kansas - Texas railroad lines amounted to $4,173,960, a decrease of $2,173,709, or 32.24 per cent, from the preceding year.

The company, in making its annual report today, termed the year 1951, a year of "solid accomplishment," however, noting a total operating revenue of $78,828,267 for an increase of 1.61 per cent over that of 1950.

Decreased income for 1951 paid earnings of $6.26 per share of 7 per cent preferred stock, leaving a deficit for common stock earnings. In 1950 preferred stock earnings were $9.52 per share, and common stock earnings $2.08.

In making its report the Katy railroad noted a loss of an estimated million dollars in revenue during last summer's Missouri and Kansas floods when traffic was interrupted in the flood areas. The company also listed an "out-of-the-pocket" cost for restoration and rehabilitation after the floods of approximately a million dollars.

Smith Gives Approval To Kerr, Stevenson

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 29—(AP)—Missouri's Governor Forrest Smith, commenting on President Truman's decision not to seek re-election, said he was "sorry Missouri won't be represented on the National Democratic ticket."

"I think either our neighbor, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, or our neighbor—Senator Kerr of Oklahoma would make a strong candidate and a good President," Smith added.

Smith governor declined to speculate what effect the President's decision would have on state election contests.

Smith had been regarded as a possible U. S. Senatorial candidate and Mr. Truman was credited with keeping him out of the race. The Kansas City Pendergast organization, of which Mr. Truman is a member, announced it would support J. E. (Buck Taylor. Other groups in the state swung to Taylor, and Smith shortly thereafter said he would not be a candidate.

Donnelly Wins Labor Support

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., March 29—(AP)—Phil M. Donnelly, bitterly opposed by organized labor in the St. Louis area, today was endorsed by two officers of a 700-member AFL union for the Democratic nomination for governor.

L. F. Sullivan, president, and Al Trapf, business representative of local 282, AFL Hod Carriers union of Poplar Bluff, said their members will be 100 per cent for Donnelly. Trapf added he believed most union members in southeast Missouri also will support the former governor.

Donnelly and his opponent, Phil J. Welch of St. Joseph, were here for the Young Democrats state convention.

John T. Idckman of St. Louis county was elected president of the organization earlier today.

Other officers are Mrs. Grace Monroe, Springfield, vice president; Harold Baker, St. Louis, secretary; Phil Hopfinger, St. Louis, treasurer, and Ray V. Harris of the eighth district, sergeant at arms.

Dickman succeeds John A. Johnson of Ellington, Mo.

"Donnelly has been a fine governor before," Trapf said. "He has made mistakes in labor legislation, but the man who never made mistakes never did anything. I can't feel that he was ever against the best interest of the laboring man."

Labor in St. Louis and some other parts of the state have been critical of Donnelly because of his support of the King-Thompson utility anti-strike law and the now-repealed Madison labor act.

The two labor leaders also said they would work for Attorney General J. E. Taylor, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator.

The banquet planned for tonight was cancelled because the program committee couldn't get a speaker. Officers explained that all "big names" of the party were in Washington for a Jefferson-Jackson dinner.

Mrs. Silsby Hurt In Fall On Steps

Mrs. Sam Long returned home Saturday from Independence where she spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Silsby.

Mrs. Silsby, a former Sedalian, fell last week and injured her leg. The accident happened when she went up the back steps of her home. As she started to open the storm door, the wind blew it back and knocked her down the concrete steps. Both legs were bruised in the fall and one was badly cut by the shoe scraper. It was thought at first that the cuts had become infected, but they are now healing and her condition is better.

HCL TAKES BIGGEST DIP—There's good news for Mama in the right side of the Newschart above. It's hardly noticeable in the overall picture, but that little down-hook at the ends of the lines represents the sharpest drop in the cost of living in the past three years, according to the latest report of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The Newschart shows the ups and downs of basic prices since the start of the Korean war in 1950. Up until the OPS price freeze in late January, 1951, spot (raw materials) prices skyrocketed, with wholesale prices tagging right along and the increases reflected in the steady rise of consumer (cost-of-living) prices. New BLS report says old HCL, for the month ended Feb. 15, showed the first dip since last July.

Rubber Shoe Exports Curtailed

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—Export of Malayan rubber shoes to Great Britain is being prevented by tariff complications, the president of the Malayan Rubber Goods Manufacturers Association has said.

"We know that Malayan rubber shoes have an excellent future in Britain but we are not going to export any to Britain unless the imperial preference requirements are relaxed," he stated.

Noting that the tariff regulations require proof that 50 per cent of the materials used were of British Empire origin, he said to secure this proof would entail a laborious, costly accounting operation.

Watchmakers Get Raise

GENEVA, Switzerland —(AP)—Swiss watches are likely to become more expensive as a result of an overall 5 per cent wage increase granted to the industry's 55,000 workers.

The Swiss Watchmakers' Association recently signed a new wage contract with the unions, granting all watch workers a flat increase of 2½ cents per hour plus other benefits, representing an overall increase of 5 per cent.

Swiss watch workers are the highest paid industrial workers in the country. The take-home pay of skilled workers, other than foremen and technicians, averages one dollar per hour with the new increase.

Canadian Immigration

OTTAWA (AP) — A near-record number of immigrants reached Canada during 1951.

Records dating back to the prosperous 1920's were toppled as immigrants from all parts of the world, including former enemy countries, were admitted to Canada.

The increase in new citizens was partly due to an increase in the number of ships calling at Canadian ports and partly to federal government programs under which immigrants were given financial assistance to come to this country.

A year ago, Immigration Minister Harris estimated that Canada would obtain 150,000 new citizens in 1951. Final figures for the year were expected to show that his estimate was not far off the mark.

Woman Leaves Hospital Where She 'Died' Two Weeks Ago

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP) — Preparing to leave the hospital where she "died" two weeks ago, Mrs. Deria A. Evans flashed a beautiful smile today.

"It just wasn't my time to go," she said.

Doctors said she is one of those rare patients revived on the operating table after their hearts stopped beating.

Even rarer, they said, she escaped the permanent brain damage which usually results in such cases.

Mrs. Evans is an attractive 36-year-old blonde from Moorefield, W. Va. She entered Memorial Hospital in Cumberland two weeks ago.

Her surgeon, who asked that his name be withheld, said her heart conked out during the operation. By massaging it with his hands he restored it to a normal beat.

He estimated the heart stopped from three to five minutes before the massage brought it back into play.

The operation was completed and Mrs. Evans was placed in an oxygen tent for 24 hours. Last Thursday they told her all about it.

"I can't believe it," she said. "I've read about these things in the newspapers but it's a shock to know that it happened to me."

Ag Department Admits Bulletins Are Out of Date

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says, with something of a red face, that much of the information it is supplying farmers on how to produce crops and livestock is out of date.

This acknowledgement was made by its director of information before a recent House Agriculture Department appropriations subcommittee.

The director, R. L. Webster, explained to the subcommittee that much of the information sent to farmers is in the form of "farmers bulletins," of which there are several hundred.

Last year 37 million copies of these bulletins were distributed—about 10 per cent through members of Congress.

Many, Webster said, were written years ago. A third of them are more than 10 years old, and one was prepared 35 years ago. It is about sheep.

Older bulletins do not take into account recent agricultural research. Webster said this was "rather disturbing."

"It is not really something we would like to advertise too much," he said.

"On the other hand, having found out about it myself, I would feel a little guilty if I did not share it (with the committee)."

He said a lack of manpower to revise the bulletins in the light of latest scientific knowledge was responsible for the situation and added that to get the latest scientific developments translated into common everyday language for farm use is a "very complicated matter."

Committee Chairman Whitten (D-Miss) suggested that Congress provide funds to make a study of the bulletins and revise those needing it.

The soul of man is not a thing which comes and goes, is builded and decays like the elemental frame in which it is set to dwell, but a very living force, a very energy of God's organic will, which rules and molds this universe.—Froude.

Miss Nadine Clevenger Becomes The Bride Of John William Hurd

On Sunday, March 23, at 2:30 in the afternoon, Miss Nadine Clevenger, 725 West Third, Sedalia, Missouri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clevenger, Concordia, became the bride of John William Hurd, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hurd, Sweet Springs, at the Blackwater Chapel Church, Sweet Springs. The Rev. William Sampson, Prairie Home, Missouri, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar setting of pink gladioli, white carnations, white lilies, and white burning tapers.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Paul Wylie, Sweet Springs, Missouri, played a program of wedding music including "Indian Love Call" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life." She accompanied Miss Ellen June Pitchford of Windsor, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The traditional processional and recessional were used.

As Mrs. Wylie played "Clair de lune", the candles were lighted by Carolyn Staats, Warrensburg, cousin of the bride, who wore a hoop-skirted gown of pink taffeta under pink net with a wrist corsage of pink daisies and also pink daisies in her hair, and Donald Hurd, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride chose for her wedding, a gown of white bridal satin styled with a fitted bodice with a scalloped lace yoke and small round lace collar. It was buttoned down the back with tiny satin covered buttons. Matching buttons were used on the long satin sleeves which came to a point over the wrists. The bouffant satin skirt was gathered onto the bodice which scalloped at the waist. Her fingertip veil of white nylon net illusion was held in place by a small scalloped cap of satin and and lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of white sweetheart roses encircled with white gladioli, stephanotis, and lace and white satin streamers.

Miss Fern Clevenger, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of ice blue taffeta styled identically to that of the bride. She wore blue lace mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses encircled with white gladioli and lace and pink satin streamers.

Melvin Hurd, brother of the bridegroom was best man.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was held at the home of the bride's parents in Concordia. The bridal table was covered with a crochetted tablecloth. The three-tiered wedding cake, on which was a miniature bride and bridegroom, centered the table and was encircled with pink gladioli blossoms.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue linen dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Colorado.

Beauty Spot In Joy Home

A beauty spot in the new home of Mr. and Mrs C. H. Joy, 1900 West Broadway, is the picture window in the living room. "There will be no lamp in my picture window," Mrs. Joy has told her friends sure enough, there is no lamp—instead there is a tall flower stand with a dozen African violets in gay little pots. It is a real picture from both inside and outside the window there between the colorful draperies. Mrs. Joy, also, has a window full of African violets in her dining room, and in front of the home are spring flowers just ready to bloom—the bulbs she put out at her home just so she would have flowers in bloom early—then she lifted them and put them in the long concrete flower box across the front of her home—and there they are growing almost ready to burst out in their springtime display.

Dorothy Ann Reed To Appear In Organ Recital Here On April 6

The Helen G. Steele Music Club will present Miss Dorothy Ann Reed, young Sedalia organist, in a recital to be given at the Broadway Presbyterian Church, Sunday afternoon, April 6, at 4:30 o'clock. Miss Reed, who is a senior at Christian College, a junior college for women, Columbia, Mo., where she is majoring in organ, will close the current season of the Music Club. Due to the interest in this young musician and the many requests of others to hear her again, the Music Club has announced that this will be an open meeting to which the public is cordially invited.

Miss Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Reed, 1006 West Seventh, Sedalia, began piano study at the age of five. Her piano work has been with Mrs. Jewell Harter Thomas, Mrs. Edythe Ross and Miss Mabel DeWitt, of Sedalia; Mr. Marion Davies, head of the piano department at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, and Mr. Franklin B. Launer, head of the Conservatory of Music at Christian College. In June, 1947, she added the study of organ to her musical training. Her first organ study was with Mrs. Hazel Lenington Shearer, former Sedalian, who presented Miss Reed in recital at the First Christian Church in November, 1947. Further organ study followed with Edna Scotten Billings of the Kansas City Conservatory of Music, and her present instructor, Mr. William C. Bedford, head of the organ department at Christian College.

At the age of 15 Miss Reed became organist for the Broadway Presbyterian Church, which position she held for nearly three years, resigning to attend college. She has also served as organist at the Country Club Congregational Church, Kansas City, during vacation. During her two years at Christian College she has been college chapel organist.

Miss Reed's program will include most of the required numbers for her graduation recital at Christian College which will be given in Columbia on April 29. Miss Mabel DeWitt will be chairman of the day.

If you have parchment lamp shades that are odd shapes and hard to replace with new ones—but you would still like to make them "look different"—try painting them with flat oil base or water thinned paint. You may have to give them two coats of paint to cover well—after the second coat stiffle the paint, while still wet, with a sponge or crushed paper, as it is very difficult to keep brush marks from showing on the shade—especially when the light is on.
Use upholstering fringe around the edge of the shade in a contrasting color; or a glazed chintz ruffle would give a "new light on the subject."

Sunshine and Shadows Play on Antiques

Sunshine and shadows bring out the loveliness of the antique furniture in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Seifert, 1701 West 11th, as they play on the marble top table, the chairs and the floor. Vines and violets are on the window sill and between them pieces of colorer glassware sparkle in the sunlight. It could almost be a picture from the 19th century with the old fashioned handpainted lamp—but the lamp is a bit different—it has gone modern—it lights with electricity —not a burning wick. Through the window my be seen the fence, the flower garden and the homes of neighbors in the distance. Mrs. Seifert, a magazine on beautiful gardens in her hands, sits at the right chatting with a friend on her favorite subject— flowers. (Photo by Padgett)

New Soup Will Add a Pound Daily for You

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—You can gain a pound of weight a day on a new soup, which looks like black coffee.

It is building up human strength before or after operations. It was the only food for 461 days for one woman while plastic surgery built her a new jaw and mouth, removed in a cancer operation. It kept another person alive for a year during a coma.

When laced with a little alcohol, a single quart of the soup supplies 1,000 calories, and proteins, minerals, sugar and salt. Many patients take three quarts a day, and eat other things besides.

You wouldn't want to drink it, for it would taste vile. It's fed, drops at a time, through a small tube going through the nose to the stomach. The tube isn't irritating and lets people eat and drink other things. The tube can be left in for days or weeks.

Known as prolac, the formula was developed by Dr. John Elliott, of Jackson Memorial Hospital in Florida, and the Dade County (Fla.) Blood Bank, Inc. It's made by breaking down proteins in defatted milk, and adding minerals and other things. It is sterile, with no germs.

Soup is being tested also at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons here, and looks very useful, said Dr. John V. Scudder of Columbia. With it, doctors often can avoid blood transfusions to build up strength, or vein feeding sugars or salts, he said.

One man here, his weight down to 75 pounds and lacking appetite, soon gained 20 pounds, and weathered a cancer operation, Dr. Scudder said during an American Cancer Society tour of cancer centers.

The alcohol helps deaden pain in cancer victims, Dr. Scudder added.

Green Phantom Appears Again On Ohio Highway

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. (AP)—The green - phantom — making good a threat to appear on Route 7 —caused an injury accident early today, Kenneth Page of nearby Brookside reported.

Page told the sheriff's office he was driving between Negley and Williamsport at 2:30 a. m. when a man appeared out of a heavy fog and tried to flag him down. The man, said Page, had a skeleton outlined in luminous green paint on his body.

Page said he tried to brake his car, which swerved into a ditch, damaging a fender and injuring Page's ankle slightly.

Then the phantom got in a car and hurried off, Page added. The injured man was able to proceed to his home.

Yesterday the switchboard operator at the Columbiana County courthouse at Lisbon heard this when she answered a telephone call: "This is the phantom...route 7 tonight."

Later East Liverpool police got a call from a man saying he was the phantom, but that was traced to a Chester, W. Va., tavern where Elvie Starr of East Liverpool was arrested. Starr admitted making th call as a joke, police said, and Mayor De Mar Miller said he would fine the East Liverpool man $5.

All that was before the accident.

The phantom has been scaring truckers and other drivers in this area and in West-Central Ohio.

You've Got to Be Scared Says She Who Built Empire

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

"You've got to be scared!"

That's the philosophy of "Ma" Ewen, who built an island empire in Jamaica, British West Indies, and now, at 75, is credited with starting the multi-million - dollar tourist business which is one of Jamaica's principal industries.

Today's young people are likely to be too pampered, protected and petted, says the regal, white-haired Mrs. Ewen. They are inclined to take the easiest course, and if things don't go well, to proceed on the theory that the world owes them a living.

"Ma" Ewen got scared back in the early 1920's, when hoof-and-mouth disease wiped out Jamaica's vast cattle herds and brought the Ewen ranch close to bankruptcy. Her husband, the late Rupert Ewen up to then a successful cattle rancher, was caught in the general panic.

That was the period when "Ma" (who was christened May Belle) learned to be an expert tailor, so that she could make the suits needed by her husband and three sons. The little finger of her right hand still bears a callous mark from cutting and sewing the cloth.

"Ma" was not one to take misfortune lying down. She checked the family's assets and found they consisted mostly of climate and scenery. She acquired a run-down villa on the choicest stretch of coral beach at Montego Bay, got to work with scrub brushes and paint, delegated carpentering and handy-man jobs to the rest of the family, and set about devising lures for tourist trade.

At that time there was no plane service to the island, and even ships arrived infrequently, but "Ma" was undismayed. Her first customers were local people. As transportation facilities increased, her fame began to spread to the world outside.

Today her Casa Blanca is a resort known from New York to London and from Paris to Calcutta. The guest list reads like a roster of the world's Who's Who. You'll run into people who speak of "Ma" Ewen with affection and respect in most of the corners of the world.

Dent, Ford Win Their Events

S-C Trackmen Place Second At Fayette

Showing surprising power in the field events, the Smith-Cotton Tigers finished in a tie for second Friday afternoon in the Central College Invitation meet held in Fayette.

Coach Bob Karnes boys racked up 21 points, the same as Kansas City Paseo. William Christian of Independence won the meet with 34, with North Kansas City finishing fourth with 20⅓. Seven teams earned points in the meet.

Two Smith-Cotton entries won their specialties. They were vaulter Jim Dent, who cleared the bar at 11 feet, and narrowly missed setting a new meet record, and weightman Herb Ford, who took the shot-put with a respectable 44-foot-4 toss.

Other Tiger scorers were dependable Floyd Burton, who scored six points by placing second in the high-hurdles and fourth in the 60-yard dash; Bob Lane, who finished third in the broad-jump; and Don Rathburn, who ended up fourth in the high-jump.

Sweeps Hurt Tigers

Team depth in certain events built up the scores of both William Christman and Paseo. Both earned 12 points in one event by sweeping the first three places—William Christman in the 60-yard dash and Paseo in the high-jump.

Outstanding performances, other than Dent's, were a 6.5 second timing in the 60-yard dash by Smith of William Christman; a leap of 6 feet-¾ inches in the high-jump by Duvall of Paseo; and a 7.7 second timing in the high-hurdles by Simpson of Columbia.

Kemper won the class-B title with 29 points, followed by Excelsior Springs and Boonville with 25½ each.

The next meet for the tigers will be the State Indoor Meet in Columbia next Saturday.

Grade School Championship To Washington

Volleyball Title To Mark Twain Girls; Whittier Consolation

Washington School ended its basketball season, Friday night, at Horace Mann school by copping the Annual Grade School Tournament. This brought the end of their season in a blaze of glory—not losing a game during the entire season of play, by defeating Broadway in the finals of the tournament, 20-17.

A Thrilling Contest

It was a thrilling contest, and a game little Broadway battled down the line to overtake the Washington champions. Not until the final whistle was the game a cinch for Washington, and only then by a close 3-point margin.

Washington sailed through the Grade School League with a 10-game winning streak against no losses.

Mark Twain Wins 36-28

Mark Twain's girls came through in the afternoon volleyball championship contest to defeat Broadway, 36 to 28. This game provided considerable excitement for the young ladies, but Mark Twain never faltered from the start to the end of the contest.

Whittier edged out the Mark Twain boys in the Consolation bracket, 10 to 9, in basketball. This game was a battle from the start to the finish.

Alley of Washington tallied six of his team's points, while Newman was high-point man of the championship game, with seven points for Broadway. In the Consolation game Huestedler of Whittier and O'Mealey of Mark Twain, tied for points with six each.

Cardinals End Dodger String With Shutout

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals ended Brooklyn's four-game winning streak with a slick 1-0 victory behind the sharp pitching of Gerry Staley and Eddie Yuhas today.

The game, twice held up by rain, was decided in the first inning when Manager Eddie Stanky walked and Stan Musial and Wally Westlake singled. Chris Van Cuky, the victim of the lone run, allowed six hits in seven innings. Clyde King allowed two hits and walked as many in two innings.

Staley allowed four hits in five innings and Yuhas three in four.

Jackie Robinson, who has been complaining of chest pains, underwent a cardiagraph examination today. It proved negative and Jackie said that he would play tomorrow. Pewee Reese, Andy Pafko and Rocky Bridges were still out of the Dodger lineup with injuries.

Miss Berg Leads At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, March 29—(AP)—Patty Berg made it look ridiculously simple by firing a two-under-par 70 to take a 10-stroke lead after 54 holes in the New Orleans women's open golf tournament today.

Patty, who hobbled on crutches this winter after a major heel operation, toured the front nine in a four under par 34, and then covered the back nine in a 36 for her 217.

Her nearest rival was another veteran campaigner, Betty Jameson, San Antonio, Texas, who continued her good play by turning in a 73 for a 227.

Marilynn Smith, the 22-year-old former Kansas university student turned professional, and Louise Suggs, Cincinnati, Ohio, finished in a tie for third with 229s.

Miss Suggs carded a 75 today, and Miss Smith, who shot a second round 83, turned in a 73 on the third round to move up among the select crowd.

Babe Zaharias, one of golf's great women players and voted by the Associated Press as the female athlete of the half-century, dropped from second to fifth position.

Browns Pound Pirates, 6-3 For 14th Win

ALPINE, Texas—(AP)—Roger Hornsby's rampaging St. Louis Browns clipped the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-3 today to rack up their 14th exhibition win against five losses.

The American leaguers, copping their fifth straight over the hapless Pirates, put together two three-run innings, the fourth and the seventh, to win going away.

Two of the Pirates runs came on homers by Johnny Merson and Joe Garagiola.

The Pirates had three men aboard and no one out in the ninth but collected only one run as Pete Castiglione hit into a double play.

A base on balls, two singles, and a double of Rookie Joe Rivera accounted for the Brownies' three runs in the fourth. In the seventh, when they got their final markers, Fred Marsh homered with one aboard.

The Brownies collected only six hits off Mel Queen, Bill Werle and Joe Muir. The Pirates clipped Cliff Fannin and Lou Sleater for eight safeties but couldn't put them together when they counted most.

Baker, Big Seven Conference indoor champ, sprinted the distance in 6.1 seconds. The record must be submitted to national officials before it is recognized.

Buddy Thomas Reports To Toronto Ball Club

Buddy Thomas, who was signed by the St. Louis Browns, has left for Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he goes into spring training with the Toronto, Canada, baseball club. Toronto is in the International League.

Bud was called into St. Louis shortly before the end of the 1951 season and played several games with the Browns. However, with the signing of Marty Marion, "Mr. Shortstop," his chances have been set back a little.

However, Thomas is still being closely watched by the Brown management, and his call may be closer than expected, it has been indicated.

Sports Scraps

BILL VEECK, president of the St. Louis Browns, spoke at the Ban Johnson banquet held in Columbia, Friday night, and it was not only an interesting talk but he made it in such a way it was entertaining and a real sales talk on his baseball organization. Veeck is coming to Sedalia within a short time to talk to the Sedalia Lions and I am sure the Lions will have a great many guests on their hands for this event.

The Lions usually meet at noon—I would suggest they either hold a night meeting or dispense with eating and let the President start his talk at 12:10. He is anything but a "polished" speaker, but he gets his point over in a way that he will hold the attention of every person in the room while he does his talking. Don't get me wrong, Bill Veeck is a lot smarter than he puts on—if he wasn't he wouldn't be Mr. Veeck in baseball. He is one of the shrewd operators in baseball and before the Cardinal organization wakes up, I am betting he will be drawing in some of the Red Bird Crowds.

Firing questions at him after his talk is just a salad dish for him. He loves every minute of it and has an answer for any question that is asked. Some of those answers are rather shady but the question gets answered.

He may own the Browns, he may be its president, but he is the best Public Relation Officer I have seen in many a day.

IF, after the brilliant performance of Clyde Lovellette and company at Seattle, anyone needs additional proof of the growing contention that the Big Seven Conference produces the best basketball players in the nation, a glance at the AAU tourney, held recently in Denver, should provide the clincher.

As everyone knows the Peoria Diesels, paced by former Missouri University star Dan Pippen, took the title by upsetting the awesome Phillips 66 Oilers.

But Pippen was by no means in strange company. On his own squad was the 1949 basketball captain at Missouri, George Lafferty; on the surprising Warrensburg Riggles aggregation were Bud Heineman and Abe Rubin from his alma mater; and on the Phillips 66 team were the bulk of the Big Seven all-stars for the past three years.

As Heineman said, "Big Seven players were all over the place. Why, there were too many to count."

But the wrap-up comes when you read the tourney's all-star team. Four of the standouts, Pippen, Ken Pryor of Phillips and Oklahoma, Bus Whitehead of Phillips and Nebraska, and Jack Stone of the Fibber McGees and Kansas State, were on the first alignment.

And so, brother, when you watch a basketball game in Columbia, or attend the Big Seven Tournament in Kansas City, you're seeing the best the game can offer—and in a cleaner atmosphere than many places provide.

YEP, it was the sublime to the ridiculous, the fish story as reported from the Gravois on the Lake of the Ozarks. As the report goes Lloyd Bowers, 118 South Gentry had been fishing on the Gravois arm of the lake on Wednesday and caught a five pound 23-inch long large mouth bass—Thursday it was different he snagged a water-dog weighing five pounds—and what do you know it was 23-inches long too.

William "Bill" Cauhig who had joined the fishing party had been hearing the greater part of the day the bass report—but Bowers has the bass to prove it—so much that he wondered if there were more somewhere about. But as the day went along and the corks bobbled up and down, the reported water-dogs were causing the bobbling.

Couhig had heard these stories about water-dogs and so had others, but they began to doubt this story being circulated by Bowers. The last toss of Bowers line for the day was made—what do you know—he had a water-dog.

It is somekind of a fish which looks like a lizard, but isn't, has a long tail resembling that of a fish, little feet under its body, and the belly something like a snail, and a head which using your imagination looks like a dog.

Further reports were some of the fishermen had their curiosity satisfied.

Baseball Association Needs Aid After Years Of Helping

By JACK HAND

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 29 (AP)—Baseball takes care of its own.

Years before the major league pension plan was born, needy old ball players were fed, housed — and often buried — By an organization called the Association of Professional Ball Players of America.

Now that Association is in bad shape financially. Loss of receipts from the annual all-star game forced its leaders to go begging to the majors for some money.

Eddie Sawyer of the Phillies, president of the Association, met recently with Joe Cronin of Boston, Clark Griffith of Washington, commissioner Ford Frick and Secretary Charley Segar to line up financial help. Sawyer reported some progress.

"We used to get the funds from the all-star game," said Sawyer. "Now the players take that for their pension fund.

"Everybody thinks the old players are taken care of by the pension fund. It's not true. The pension fund is a wonderful thing but it has nothing to do with needy old-timers. It takes care of the fellows playing now or a few years back but it doesn't do a thing for the old fellows—the fellows who made the game.

"We have about 2,500 cases. They run from $50 a month to $500 a month. If I could tell you the names we'd probably have all the money we need.

"Nobody knows the names, except our investigators. We keep it that way, no publicity. Just helping those who need it. But now we need help.

Sawyer had a long file of case numbers ranging from ex-major leaguers to trainers and scouts.

One fellow had lost his job after 41 years in baseball. He had used up all his available funds in paying doctor bills and needed help to make ends meet.

Another was critically ill with a brain ailment. He hadn't been able to work. Slowly his life savings evaporated.

And so it went. Heart-wringing stories of misfortunes, sickness and old age. No wonder the expenses were pushing the $75,000 mark.

Every player in baseball, every umpire, trainer, scout or coach can belong. The fees run from $10 in the majors to $5 in the smaller leagues. Fans can join, too, for a $5 honorary membership.

Club owners are expected to match with a donation the total their club. But some never come through. The total membership dues in 1951 were $40,000.

England Holds Its Best Race Next Saturday

By BEN PHLEGAR

LONDON, March 29 (AP) — The Grand National, the world's most famous and unpredictable steeplechase, will be run next Saturday at Aintree. And if you're looking for a winner you better get Aunt Emma's hatpin sharpened up.

For years, science and the bookies have proved that the hatpin method is by far the most reliable for finding the winner of this free-for-all where the favorite almost never wins and where most of the field never sees the finish lin. You may find it ven better jabbing the hatpin while blindfolded.

Fifty-two horses, including two previous winners, are eligible to start in the gruelling 4½-mile chase over 30 of the toughest fences on any race course. Veteran observers agree that the odds against any particular horse even finishing are at least 10to 1.

The start last year was terrible. Eleven horses fell at the first fence. Twenty more were down by th halfway point. Part of the difficulty stems from the trainers' instructions to the jockeys. Most trainers tell them: "Be in the first six over the first jump."

Even though the Aintree jumps all of the horses to be in the first six.

Twenty-eight special trains will be run to Liverpool from all parts of the British Isles. The crowd, on which an official figure is never announced, is expected to run some where near the usual 300,000.

In addition to its other claims to fame, the National is also the world's richest steeplechase. First place this year will be worth $26,753.70.

If 50 or more of the eligibles start, the field will be the third largest in the 106-year history of the race. The record field is 66 in 1929 when Greglach won at 100 to 1. In 1947, there were 57 starters and again a 100 to 1 shot, Caughoo, won. Forty-nine started and seven finished when Freebooter won at 10 to 1 in 1950.

Veeck Speaks At Columbia B. J. Meeting

The Central Missouri Ban Johnson League, Friday night, held a meeting at Columbia, after which a banquet was held at the Daniel Boone Hotel. Bill Veeck, president of the St. Louis Browns was the principal speaker at the affair, and entertained more than 200 guests for more than an hour.

Veeck held back no punches regarding his eighth-place Brownies of 1951—but he told the baseball fans he expected to see a team start climbing the ladder of success this coming season. "Predict," said Veeck, "the Browns will be no worse than fifth place, and I expect to see them end in third place.

Does Wishful Thinking

"Wishful thinking," he continued, "but it wouldn't surprise me to see them win the pennant. Wouldn't it be great if the Browns and Cardinals had to battle it out this year in the World Series."

In his talk he took position for position naming his players, naming the ones his manager Roger Hornsby wanted and the ones he got, "he got all he asked for too, I might add." Veeck told the crowd.

The Brownie president paid tribute to Marty Marion, and remarked, "That other ball club in St. Louis did the Browns a great favor when they released Marty as their manager. I think the Browns got the greatest shortstop in baseball. Personally the change has done him good—he don't have the old limp, his back doesn't hurt, in fact he is just like one of the kids. Marty is the "Pied Piper' on our ball club. When he goes out the entire infield is following, and he doesn't mind a bit. In fact Marty takes time out to help all the younger ball players, and that's a big help to Hornsby."

Tribute to Paige

Veeck also paid tribute to Satchel Paige. "What we need is some seven-inning pitchers. Old Satch will take care of the rest be they the last two or extra innings."

Veech was introduced by M. R. Aldridge, who acted as toastmaster.

Vic Minert, president of the Central Missouri Ban Johnson League, of Boonville, and Mrs. Minert; Walter Jessee, vice-president of the league and Mrs. Jessee of Sedalia, were introduced as was Governor Forest Smith, who was just a "guest"; Mayor Roy Sappington, of Columbia; the new city manager, Leo Hill; Hi Simmons, of the University of Missouri, Commissioner of the B. J. League; Bill Callahan, M. U. sports publicity director; and H. L. "Hank" Williams, Sedalia, Missouri, semi-pro commissioner.

Wren and Barbour There

Among M. U. baseball players at the dinner were Junior Wren, Kansas, one of Missouri's football star of recent seasons, and Carl Barbour, Sedalia, both former Ban Johnson players. Both were introduced along with other Tiger players.

W. D. "Bill" Fortney, of the McKay Chevrolet Co., sponsorors of the Columbia B. J. team, was chairman of arrangements for the banquet.

KU Smothers Springfield

KANSAS CITY, March 29—(AP)—NCAA champion Univers of Kansas Jayhawks toyed through the first round Olympic basketball playoffs 92 to 65 over the Springfield, Missouri, State Bears tonight.

KANSAS CITY, March 29—(AP)—Lefty Wayne Glasgow's long push shot with two seconds remaining in the second overtime period gave the Phillips "66" Oilers a 50-48 victory over Hollywood's Fibber McGee and Molly team in the first round of the Olympic playoffs tonight.

Glasgow's long field goal decided the issue for Phillips, second in the AAU national tournament, after the fourth-place Hollywood team had played a brilliant ball-control game to gain a 48-all tie at the end of regulation time.

In the first extra 5-minute period only one shot was taken, that by Hollywood's Billy Donovan, with seconds remaining after the McGees had controlled the ball for the complete period. He missed.

The Fibber McGee and Molly team continued its ball-control tactics in the second overtime and got away with it for the first 3½ minutes. Phillips got the ball when Donovan drove under the basket and missed a clean layup shot.

Bob Kurland got the rebound for the Oilers and moved the ball downcourt to put on a stall of their own that was climaxed by Glasgow's winning fielder.

Fibber McGee and Molly, which dropped behind 10 points at the half, 36-26, got back in the ball game with five minutes remaining on Danny Roberts' field goal from side court. The Hollywood team got its only lead of the game seconds later on Johnny Arndt's free throw at 48-47.

The McGees started their stalling tactics at that point but didn't get by with it as Paul Courty made a free throw with 39 seconds left to send the game into overtime.

Glasgow hooked in seven field goals and 10 free throws for 24 points in pacing the Phillips attack. Kurland, who played a remarkable defensive game, contributed 14 points.

Al Roges, former Long Island university star who joined Hollywood just this week, flipped in 17 points.

Burke Rules As Favorite In Masters

By STERLING SLAPPEY

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 29 (AP)—The Masters Tournament beginning Thursday can almost be counted on to produce another golfing oddity—an additional bit of golfing history.

And a winning score of 281-283 for four rounds is a good guess.

But, deciding just which golfer has the best chance of winning proves too tough a job for most of the pickers.

As a rule, favorites don't win on the 6,950-yards of championship course at the Augusta National Club, where par is 36-36—72.

Favorites this spring are led by Jackie Burke Jr., who won four winter circuit tournaments in a row and by defending Masters Champion Ben Hogan.

Records, history and custom indicate that neither will win next week.

If Hogan takes the crown he will be the first to defend his championship with another championship. Burke would be one of the few winter circuit leaders to stay in the lead through the Masters—the first major tournament each year.

Last April, Hogan rated among the second echelon of favorites principally because he overcame the effects of his automobile accident and won the National Open. Few fans thought he would follow up that victory with a Masters, and instead of picking Hogan the fans settled on Cary Middlecoff, Jim Ferrier and Lloyd Mangrum.

But Hogan won and the show was one of the Masters' best productions.

In 1950, Sam Snead, Mangrum, Ferrier and Middlecoff led pre-tournament talk. Jimmy Demaret led the shooting for his third Masters title.

Snead wasn't supposed to be a good putter in springtime, 1949—especially on the slick greens of the National. In the Masters, Snead putted as well as he drove and that was more than good enourh to win.

And so it goes, almost to the start of the Masters—favorites seldom winning. Along the way, Claude Harmon won in 1948 and Herman Keiser in 1946 for the two greatest upsets of all.

And back through 15 Masters are oddities aplenty including the greatest of them all—Gene Sarazen's double eagle in 1935.

Civic Clubs To Organize Little League

Representatives from four Sedalia civic organizations met Friday evening to formulate plans for the opening of the Sedalia Little League, a project of organized baseball for boys between the ages of nine and 12.

The Little League is nation-wide. Last year it provided recreation for 78,600 boys on 2,043 teams in 37 states, and was supervised by 11,200 adults. The local club has applied for its charter from the national headquarters in Williamsport, Penna.

Current plans call for four teams in the local loop. Each will carry 15 players, drawn from a closely checked players pool. The teams will be fully uniformed, managed and coached, and all games will be under the jurisdiction of a full staff of officials. Supervising the entire project will be a league commissioner.

The games will be played on a diamond scaled down to fit the players, and each contest is scheduled for six innings.

Each of the four civic organizations, Rotary, Kiwanis, Elks and Jaycees, sent three men to the meeting. The following officers were selected: Dr. Glenn Lindley, president; Kenneth Miller, vice-president; Herb Brandes, secretary; and Lloyd Phillips, treasurer. The executive committee is composed of the following: Rotary, Bob Johnson and P. A. Sillers; Kiwanis, Bert Hathaway and I. H. Reed; Elks, Ed Behen and Dick Sklar; and Jaycees, Bob Wall and Ken Schilb.

Committee chairmen are as follows: field, P. A. Sillers; umpire, Dick Sklar; constitution, Bert Hathaway; player pool, Ed Behen; equipment, Bob Johnson; finance, Ken Schilb; and publicity, Bob Wall.

The exact dates for registration of players and team try-outs will appear in this paper as soon as they are et.

Peoria Surges Into Semi-Final Of Olympic Test

NEW YORK, March 29—(AP)—Red-hot La Salle, still riding the momentum that carried it through the National Invitation tournament, downed St. John's of Brooklyn 71-62, and the AAU champion Peoria Raterpillars rallied to subdue the U. S Air Force from Tinker Field, Okla., 71-67, tonight, to gain the semi-finals of the Olympic basketball trials at Madison Square Garden.

NEW YORK, March 29—(AP)—The Peoria Caterpillars, national AAU champions, unloosed a fourth period rally tonight to subdue the U. S. Air Force, 71-67, and gain the semi-final of the Olympic basketball trials.

La Salle, the National Invitation champion, and St. John's of Brooklyn met in the second opening game at Madison Square Garden.

The Caterpillars will meet either the Phillips Oilers or the Hollywood, Calif., McGees in the round of four here Monday night. Phillips, AAU runnerup, and the McGees clashed at Kansas City.

Howie Williams, former Purdue university star who sat out the first half with a knee injury, proved the deciding factor in the close, hard-fought joust.

The 6-foot-4 Peoria guard rifled three long set shots through the hoop during the Caterpillars' fourth period spurt and clinched the game in the fading seconds with with a driving layup.

The caterpillars, behind 35-43 at the half and trailing 54-58 at the end of the third period, seemed doomed to defeat when their big rebounding and shooting star, Frank McCabe, went out on personal fouls with only a minute gone in the final quarter.

Up to that stage it had been the jumbo McCabe, six-foot-eight, 230-pound former Marquette player, who had kept the AAU champions within sight of the Airmen's heels. When he went out he had 16 points, representing seven field goals and two foul shots.

Mize Wants 2,000th Hit

JOHNNY MIZE
New Club Member?

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., — Johnny Mize may be big and slow but he's eight pounds lighter than last season. Know why? Big Jawn wants to get at least 51 hits this season so he can become a member of the 2,000 hit club.

"I'm eight pounds lighter than last season at 234," says Mize. "The other day after a three-hour workout I got down to 229½. Why that's lighter than when I played with the Cardinals, and with the Giants I once went to 235. I don't know how many hits I need for 2,000 but that's my goal."

Mize has more hits than any players in either league because of the retirement of Joe DiMaggio and Wally Moses, now a coach with the Philadelphia Athletics. DiMaggio made 2,214 hits in his career while Moses checked out at the age of 41 with 2,138 base hits. Mize, who became 39 last January 7, has made 1949 hits since he first came up with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1936.

Ted Williams ranks second in the American League with 1763 hits. Only four other players in the National League are ahead of Williams. They are Phil Cavarretta of the Cubs (1906), Bob Elliott of the Braves (1905), Stan Musial of the Cards (1829) and Enos Slaughter of the Cards (1768).

Mize, who led the National League four times in home runs and hit 51 back in 1947, might retire after this season. He isn't sure.

He has put down a deposit on a house and 12 acres of land at De Leon Springs, seven miles from Deland where he lives in the off season. He talks about the speckled perch and bass in the two lakes on the property. He also has a half interest in a liquor store.

There's little doubt but that Mize—the new streamlined Mize will play some first base for the Yankees this season. Manager Casey Stengel rates him right behind Joe Collins, despite four other first sackers who had been working out.

Casey is no fool. He knows the value of Mize's bat, especially after the 1951 World Series. Twice the Giants walked Mize with first base open and each time Leo Durocher's strategy backfired. But had the Giants pitched to Mize there's no telling what might have happened. He has hit 351 major league home runs and batted in 1281 markers.

Nary, Clark Set A Red-Hot Pace At Wilmington

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 29 —(AP)—Big Bill Nary, who calls Los Angeles home but registers from Albuquerque, N. M., and Jimmy Clark, Virginia-born pro who plays out of Lagune Beach, Calif., moved into a 54-hole first-place tie in the $10,000 Azalea open golf tournament today with 12-under par 204 totals.

They were only one stroke ahead of South Africa's Bobby Locke; Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., and Jimmy Turnesa, Briarcliff, N. Y., going into tomorrow's final round.

Four men were tied for sixth place at 206, only two strokes from the top end. They were Doug Ford, Harrison, N. Y.; Joe Kirkwood, Jr., Hollywood, Calif.; George Fazio, Pine Valley, N. J., and Jim Ferrier, San Francisco.

The 36-year-old Nary used the same white-hot putter with which he set a PGA tournament record of 19 putts last month at El Paso when he shot a record-equalling 60. It hadn't cooled off any as it was the magic wand Bill used in shooting a 35-31—66, lowest score of the round over the 6,652-yard Cape Fear country club course.

To date this year his $2,495 won has him ninth on the money winning list.

The 30-year-old Clark opened with a one-over five when he put his tee shot into the trees, but starting at No. 3 Jimmy banged out five successive birdies to turn in 32. Putts of 15 and 12 feet featured the spree. On the return trip he had eight pars and a birdie on No. 12 when he sent home a 6-foot putt.

Jeff City Negro Signs Pro Football Contract

PITTSBURGH, March 29—(AP)—Bill Robinson, 200-pound negro halfback, signed today to play with the National Football League Pittsburgh Steelers.

Robinson, a native of Pittsburgh, played with Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo., last season. He is the 11th player and the third negro to sign with the Steelers this year.

Walcott Agrees To Meet Charles For Heavy Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott and Ezzard Charles will meet in Philadelphia's huge Municipal Stadium early in June with Walcott's heavyweight title at stake.

Promoter Herman Taylor announced yesterday that the two principals will sign contracts for the 15-round title Monday.

The exact date of the bout has not been announced but June 9 has been mentioned as the most probable time.

Municipal Stadium is the big arena where Gene Tunney won the heavyweight crown in 1926 by outpointing Jack Dempsey before a crowd of more than 120,000.

The 37 - year - old heavyweight champion from Camden, N. J., and Charles, Cincinnati, O., former titleholder, each will receive 30 per cent of the gate.

The bout will mark Walcott's first title defense since he won the crown from Charles at Pittsburgh last July 18 by a knockout in the seventh round.

Before he finally captured the title, Walcott twice was beaten by Charles and also lost in two tries at wrestling the crown away from former titleholder Joe Louis.

Turnesa Terms Babe No Match For His Boys

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (AP) — Willie Turnesa, captain of the United States Walker Cup team, took exception today to a recent statement that the current crop of feminine golfers can match shots with the best of the nation's male amateurs.

The statement was made by Fred Corcoran, tournament director of the ladies PGA. He suggested a match between Babe Didrikson and U. S. amateur champion Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex. That match has been made and will be played in the near future, probably in Texas.

Corcoran said the "big four" of women's golf — The Babe, Patty Berg, Louise Suggs and Betty Jameson — are capable of gaining the quarterfinals of the men's amateur championship and might even win the title.

All of which caused Turnesa to say with emphasis:

"I'm not taking anything away from such fine distaff players as The Babe, Patty Berg and Louise Suggs, but they're only good as far as women go. When Corcoran makes a statement such as this, I think he's just whistling in the dark.

"In fact, I doubt very much if any of his gals could even qualify for the national amateur, let alone get to the quarter-finals."

The former American and British amateur champion, also had a word or two to say about the Zaharias-Maxwell match.

"If the match is ever played," Willie said, "I don't think the Babe has a chance of beating Maxwell. I've never seen Maxwell play but he's the national amateur champ and that's good enough for me.

"If the match is played on a regulation course (no pitch and putt variety) and over 36 holes Maxwell will win in a waltz."

Sooner Aggies Win Their Own Relays; Set Two Records

STILLWATER, Okla., March 29 —(AP)—Oklahoma A. & M. college breezed home far ahead of the field today to capture its own 10th annual Aggie relays.

Track stars from nine colleges set five new meet records and tied three others.

The Aggies piled up 76½ points for first place. Oklahoma was second with 43. Other rankings were North Texas State 42, Houston 26; Kansas State Teachers of Emporia, 4; Wichita 3; Arkansas 2½; and Southwestern of Winfield, Kan. 1.

Oklahoma won the two-mile relay in a record time of 7:50, and the Oklahoma Aggies set a new mark in the distance medley of 10:30.

Nick Spillos of Houston hurled the discus 149 feet, 11¾ inches for the third new record in the senior college division.

In the junior college division, Oklahoma Aggies won the mile relay in the record time of 3:29.1, and Alan Esndaugh of Arkansas broke the mile run mark with a time of 4:30.1.

Bob Buchanan of Stillwater high school also set a new state high school record of 4:29.5 in a special invitational mile run against Dick Shunatona of Wewoka. The old mark was 4:31 set by Glenn Dawson, Skiatook, in 1931.

Nashville Women Win Third In AAU Tourney

WICHITA, Kan., March 29—(AP) —Nashville Business College moved into third place in the 24th National AAU women's basketball tournament here tonight by downing Iowa Wesleyan college 43-34.

The Wesleyans, who were somewhat of a sensation early in the tourney, had a bad night and were wild in their passing and shooting—playing well only in spurts.

The Iowa girls led 7-6 for the first quarter, and 16-13 at the half but Nashville riddled the Iowans' defense with a short pass and a goal attack in the third to go ahead 28-24. In the final period the Tennessee girls pulled away to an easy win.

Agnes Baldwin was high for Nashville with 11 points, followed by Betty Ann Murphy with 10, and Patricia Ownes with 9. Bernita Rohlfing led Wesleyan with 12.

In the annual free throw contest preceding the night games, Hazel Starrett of the 1951 champion Hanes Hosiery, Winston-Selem, N. C., walked off with honors. Starrett tossed in 47 out of 50 tries. Second place went to Lurlyne Greer also of Hanes who made it 44 out of 50.

Sedalian Coaches In Alaska

Edmond Bryant, of Sedalia, who is in the United States Navy and now at Adak, Alaska, is coaching a basketball team in the Navy League in Adak. His team as of March 21 was in third Place with two games remaining and both with loop leaders. Bryant and his team are picture above, he being No. 11. Bryant is the son of Mrs. C. Brent Samuels, 1707 South Stewart and the husband of Mrs. Morley Bryant, 418 East Third. As a boy he carried papers for the Democrat for several years. He writes, "With a little luck, we can tie for first place in the league."

Today's Specialists Would Cut Him Down

Giant Rookie Doubts If Cobb Would Steal Many Bases Now

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)— Would Ty Cobb, the baseball great who's been investing against the modern ball player, have run wild against these same present day boys?

"Not a chance," opines at least one of the younger generation—Rudy Rufer, the New York Giant shortstop chattel who's ticketed to spend his Summer with Oakland in the Pacific Coast League.

Rudy, who can seek shelter behind his own base-stealing histrionics (he pilfered 53 at Minneapolis last year to lead the American Association), explains.

"Guys are too smart nowadays. There were a lot of sloupy ball players in Cobb's day. Everybody's a specialist now. They know all the tricks.

"They've got to. Baseball is dog-eat-dog. In every farm system there are a dozen guys behind you, waiting to take over the minute you slip up. You don't fool these players with the tricks Cobb used."

Those words don't spill out with brazen flippancy from the modern generation. Rufer is a serious, self-effacing young man.

Rudy the Reindeer has parlayed his fleet feet and agile noodle into base stealing success which has somewhat nullified his good-field-no-hit tab. And he did it with the sort of thinking and ingenuity that Cobb feels is extinct these days.

"First," begins the slender 24-year-old, "I study the pitchers. No matter how smart, they still develop habits that tell you when they're coming home with the pitch. You never steal off the catcher, always the pitcher. I've even done it on pitchouts.

"Next I get that good lead. Giant scout Hans Lobert taught me to get up on my toes and prance around for a quick start. It's better to take a chance being picked off first than get caught going into second."

Surprisingly, Rufer lists sliding last in base stealing importance.

"The idea is to get to the base as quick as possible, and there isn't a runner who doesn't sacrifice some speed to go into a slide."

Californian Cobb can get a first hand look this summer.

Three Experts Pick Hartnett As Game's Greatest Catcher

By GAYLE TALBOT

PHOENIX (AP) — It was sitting-around and talking time after the Giants' daily workout and the subject came up as to which was the greatest catcher the game ever saw—Mickey Cochrane or Bill Dickey.

"Neither," growled Tom Sheehan head scout of the National League champs. "For my money, the best anyone ever has seen behind that plate was Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs. He had a better throwing arm than either Cochrane or Dickey, and he could murder you with that bat, too."

"Check," assented Frank Shellenbach, the club's pitching coach. "You've named my man. Smart, too. Some players thought old Gabby was on the dumb side, but it was the biggest mistake they'll ever make. Dumb like a fox, he was."

"I'll have to go along with you," came in Carl Hubbell, who like the other two was something of a pitcher in his day. "I can't honestly judge the two American Leaguers because I didn't see too much of them, but I don't see how either of them could have been better than Gabby."

It was suggested that either Cochrane or Dickey, going strictly by the record book, show a slight advantage over old "tomato face" in the matter of sticking averages. In Hartnett's best year, 1937, he hit .354. Dickey soared to .362 in '36; Cochrane to .357 in '30.

"That's all you fellows go by when you start getting up an all star club—the record book," Sheehan charged in a voice which swayed the draperies. "Any baseball player will tell you you can't go by the book. If you could, we wouldn't need any scouts. The men who played against Harnett, though, will tell you he was murder, pure murder.

"Steal against him? Not a chance. That guy could wait until a runner was halfway down to second and throw him out by 10 feet. He seemed to have some second sense which told him when you were going down, too. He'd call for a pitch-out and you were dead.

"Cochrane couldn't throw in the same class with Gabby. Look what the Cardinals did to him in the '31 series—stole his shirt. They blamed it on the A's pitchers, said that Grove and Earnshaw didn't have a motion to first to help him. That's a lot of bunk. Harnett must have had some pitchers without great motions, too, but nobody tried stealing on him the second time.

"And don't think he couldn't hit that ball. He'd give you 30-40 home runs a season, and he always seemed to hit them when they hurt the most. Remember that pennant he won with one on the last day? When they made him manager I told him I was mighty happy to congratulate him because he was losing his best man. Once you make 'em manager they don't like to play much any more."

Haste Aids Score

PGA Suggests Several Ways To Help Game

By Wade Jones
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The Professional Golfer's Association comes up with some ideas for speeding play on the country's overcrowded courses, a thing that's needed like a green needs grass.

The PGA teeaching committee says one of the chief causes of the five-hour round these days is the guy who waits until the last minute before selecting the club he's going to use and deciding how he's going to make the shot.

Choose your club and get your shot figured out while you're walking up to your ball or waiting for the foursome ahead to move on. When it comes your turn to shoot, you're all ready and set.

This applies to thee greens as well as to the fairways. Dope your putt out and stand by your ball ready to make the shot as soon as it's your turn. Don't take an extra practice putt after you've holed out and don't stand around on the green figuring out scores. Do that while you're walking from the green to the next tee.

Cut out the practice swings. They will do your game more harm than good, the committee says. Some people, like Babe Zaharias, will give you an argument on this, but there's no doubt that practice swings slow down the play on a course.

If your foresome is playing slow, invite the people behind you to play through. The sporting thing is not to wait for them to ask your permission. Ordinarily politeness and good manners improve everybody's peace of mind and heaven knows that happy state is what every golfer should be striving for.

It doesn't take much figuring to see how failure to observe these little rules can actually add hours to the playing time of a round. Say every man in a foursome wastes 10 seconds on every shot—taking practice swings, and not lining up his shot and selecting his club ahead of time.

If each man takes 90 strokes for the round, that means he's wasted 900 seconds, or 15 minutes. And it means the four players have wasted a total of 3600 seconds, or one hour.

Add to that the time wasted looking for lost balls, without letting the people behind you come through, adding up scores on the greens, etc., and you could easily get another hour. Which means two hours wasted that needn't have been.

The suggestions for hurrying up play will also have a surprisingly good effect on the average golfer's game.

Mr. Average usually spends too much time fiddling around over his ball. It gets him tensed up. Step right up to it and bang away and see how much better you do.

The pros are prime examples of this. They play so fast that to the duffer it sometimes looks like they're hitting the ball on the run.

Otterville Boots and Saddle Club Year Old, Plan Big '52 Program

Group Becoming Famous As One Of Best in State

Because they like horses and love to ride, and needed something to while away the time on Sunday afternoons, members of the Otterville Boot and Saddle club established their organization a year ago. Little did they realize then that the group would grow so quickly, and certainly none anticipated the fame which the club has enjoyed.

Now the group is recognized as one of the leading riding clubs in the state—a fact they hope to make more true soon when they play host to members of other riding clubs of Missouri at a dance.

There were only nine riders that first Sunday afternoon they got together in Leo Smith's pasture near Otterville on Highway 50. But now, with the new season just starting, there will be more than 50 riders every time they make an appearance — and often there will be many more.

April 17 is the club's actual anniversary for that was the date of a meeting of some few interested persons. Five days later the first ride was held. After that the Smith pasture had more and more horses and riders until the group decided to start organized drills for performances.

Make Many Appearances

Hardly were the drills considered until there were invitations for the riders to take their mounts and give exhibitions here and there. They tried to accomodate all those who wanted their show — and they made friends and gathered supporters with each public ride.

They had a big picnic for members and their families on a Sunday afternoon early in June and the next week their first public appearance when they rode in the rodeo parade here in Sedalia. Then they were starred at the three-day State Fair Rodeo.

After that their rides for various entertainments became more and more frequent. Before the summer was over they had taken part in fairs and street festivals in Syracuse, Boonville, twice at Versailles, Otterville, Tipton and California. They were at Syracuse for the horse show and again for the auto races. They were a feature of the California and Tipton Fairs.

Hold Own Amateur Rodeo

That wasn't enough, they decided one night at a square dance they were holding, so they started their own amateur rodeo at Otterville. It was held in September and proved so popular and successful they have decided it is an annual event and have already started plans for another rodeo this fall.

They rode in the Sedalia Christmas parade, then retired from the public eye for the winter season. A pie supper in November and an oyster supper in February kept the group together and gave time for some more planning. And it gave rise to the idea of having their own club house—a feat they accomplished by utilizing a building on the Smith farm.

There are so many plans for this year one wonders if they can accomplish all they have set out to do. Then one recalls how speedily and well they developed a year ago and there can be no doubt they'll do even more this year, accepting engagements they now have not even dreamed about.

Hope To Ride at Royal

They are dreaming, however, about one event that they hope can become an actuality. That's to ride in the American Royal at Kansas City. They have had overtures made to them to be one of the attractions and they have said "yes." It's on if arrangements can be completed in Kansas City. They are sure of a spot on the State Fair program here for that has already been set up.

Another Sedalia appearance will be at the rodeo here in June. Then they'll repeat the very successful trail ride they held last year with 54 riders taking part.

Always Carry Banner

Oh yes, they want to install lights at their riding field, build bleachers and a refreshment stand, and furnish other equipment for the place where they work to learn new drills almost the year 'round.

Whenever and wherever they appear the club takes its attractive gold and blue banner which was designed by the founder, organizer and president, Mrs. Edward (Allene) Harper.

Other officers who serve with Mrs. Harper include: Edward Harper as vice-president; Leo Smith as first drill master; Ralph Williams, second drill master, and Carl Rennison as secretary and treasurer.

The Harpers organized the club because they had been in a similar group in Nevada. They moved to a home on Highway 50 just two miles from Otterville, taking with them their prized palomino. They missed the Nevada rides and got others interested in a club at Otterville. Mrs. Harper continues to conduct her dancing school here and Edward works at the Missouri Pacific Shops.

All Central Missourians who watched the Boot and Saddle Clubbers last year will be watching for new and fancier tricks in the drills they'll see this year—and club officials say the crowds will be pleased because they have new drills and other specialty entertainment for all who will see them in action.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Army moved ahead today with its program of prohibiting dependents of enlisted men below the rank of sergeant from staying longer than 90 days in West Germany.

Under Army regulations, only the dependents of personnel from sergeant upwards are entitled to travel allowances, and housing when they arrive here.

If a lower grade soldier wants to bring his wife and children over he must do so at his own expense, and provide housing for them on the German economy.

These dependents obtain tourist visas from the German government good for 90 days, and the Army has ruled that such visas cannot be renewed during any calendar year by unauthorized dependents who arrived after March 15.

Unofficial estimates said as many as 10,000 dependents may be affected, but Army officials said they had not yet compiled the figures.

The army said it had not "ordered" any such dependents home, but the visa ruling automatically barred them from remaining. The Army said the order was issued "to alleviate the rapidly growing problem resulting from the presence of occupation forces dependents in the zone not under military sponsorship."

Lower grade soldiers who have their families in Germany were ordered to register their dependents, giving arrival dates and addresses. One officer asserted that in many cases such dependents have been forced to live in squalid quarters because of Germany's acute housing shortage. He said some Germans had complained they were unable to find living quarters because of the unsponsored dependents. The ruling also will affect dependents of some 85,000 military replacements due to come to Europe this year.

One loophole was left to consider extreme cases. Requests for visa renewals "with full justification" attached will be processed at military posts. The only privileges the Army grants these dependents are post exchange cards and emergency medical service.

Bob Thomas in Hollywood—

Film to Dash Our Notions About the Pilgrim Fathers

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A lot of our schoolbook notions about the Pilgrim fathers are going to be punctured by a new film from Hollywood.

The picture is called "the Plymouth Adventure," and it's being personally produced by Dore Schary, headman at MGM. Among the facts he relayed to me:

1. The John Alden-Priscilla Mullins-Miles Standish triangle was strictly a figment of Longfellow's imagination. Standish was a married man and much older than Priscilla.

2. The Pilgrims didn't land on Plymouth Rock.

3. The Mayflower wasn't blown off its course, which was supposed to be to Virginia. A land speculator bribed the captain to deliver the settlers to New England (This is supposed to be the first real estate swindle in American history.)

4. The Pilgrims weren't stiff-necked, stolid people. They were warm human beings capable of having fun.

5. They didn't dress primly, with square, Buster Brown haircuts. Their outfits could be colorful, and their hair styles were similar to those of today, including the crew-cut.

6. The Indians were not exactly friendly toward the settlers, but did them no real harm.

7. Only half of the Pilgrims were religious dissenters. The others were tradespeople and craftsmen.

The picture will take the Pilgrims into their first spring in the new land, but the emphasis will be on the voyage across the Atlantic.

"I don't think most people realize what a great achievement it was," said producer Schary. "Here were 102 passengers cooped up for three months on a ship that was 102 feet long with a 22-foot beam. The weather was miserable and the seas rough; the supplies of food and water became perilously low. The privation and the embarrassment of having to live so close must have been terrific."

I asked Schary how he became interested in the Pilgrim saga.

"It has intrigued me for a long time," he replied. "Twenty-one years ago, Don Hartman (now the Paramount production boss) and I were working on a musical show to be based on the Pilgrims. We were all set to go into production, but the project fell through.

"In recent years, there has been a lot of new material turned up about the Pilgrims. Books like 'Saints and sinners' and 'The Plymouth Adventure' have thrown a new light on the founding fathers. The information has upset the impression school children get from books and old paintings that the Pilgrims were stiff, uninteresting people."

The producer admitted that he was assailing a Hollywood bugaboo in tackling the Pilgrim subject. Producers have long shunned films on early American history.

"There are laws among producers which are supposed to be so permanent as to be engraved on stone," he said. "One said that you couldn't make pictures about married people. But then came 'The Thin Man' and 'The Awful Truth' to upset that.

"People said you couldn't possibly make pictures without women. But now there are dozens of successful all-male films. Likewise, it was impossible to make a picture about a priest and a bunch of kids. 'Going My Way' put a stop to that nonsense.

There has been prejudice against making pictures about early American history, probably because such pictures had been failures in the past. But I hope 'The Plymouth Adventure' will put an end to that belief. There are many stories in our early history that could make exciting pictures."

RARE TWO-A-DAY — Preparing for "Cosi Fan Tutte," her second opera in one day, soprano Eleanor Steber vocalizes in Metropolitan dressing room after singing in "Otello."

'Good Nite Ladies' Here Saturday, A 3-Act Farce

"Good Nite Ladies," a 3-act farce comedy, will play at the Liberty Theatre next Saturday afternoon and night.

This play, adapted by Cyrus Wood from "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath," by Avery Hopwood, concerns itself with the conquences that occur when a woman-shy professor tries to learn about the opposite sex. Studies of insect life have taught him that the female of the species is more deadly than the male. He learns that while girls are just as dangerous, they are more fun.

To be cured of his shyness, he is enticed into going to an artists and models ball known as the Pagan Revel. But the revel proves to be too pagan and too wild, and is raided by the police. In escaping from the clutches of the law, the professor and his man companion find themselves in a Turkish bath for women only, and the story goes on from there.

Dayle Rodney, Rolf Forsberg, Dorine Lipik, Monie May and Josephine Drew have the leading roles in the production.

THE PROGRAM FOR SUNDAY thru Tuesday at the Uptown is "This Woman Is Dangerous," starring Joan Crawford, Dennis Morgan and David Brian. The other feature is Disc Jockey—star-jammed tune-crammed—and all star Jam session.

WALT DISNEY'S real-life actor portrayals of those favorite childhood characters written into Robert Louis Stevenson's "Treasure Island" will be seen at the 50 Hiway Drive-In Theatre beginning today for a three-day engagement. "Treasure Island" is in Technicolor and stars Bobby Driscoll and Robert Newton.

Democrat Pick-Ups

Odds and Ends By News Staff

A man walked into a shoe store recently where his wife had left a pair of his shoes to be half soled.

"Pick out your shoes, Mr. Green," said the girl waiting on him.

The name is Blue, said the man.

So Mr. Blue picked out the pair of shoes he thought was his, took them home and said to his wife: "Are these my shoes?"

Mrs. Blue took them, glanced at them and put them down with "I guess they are."

So Mr. Blue put them on and wore them all the next day and in the late afternoon the girl from the shoe store called.

"Mr. Blue," she said, "I gave you Mr. Green's shoes. I'll send you yours and send out after Mr. Green's shoes."

The girl may not really be color blind, but she sure got mixed up on her colors that time. Maybe Mr. Blue had better start wearing blue shoes so he can pick them out the next time, like the man who painted his car a baby blue so he wouldn't have any trouble finding it.—H.L.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Theodore Shelton, St. Louis, owner of a large farm near Hughesville, returned from a trip to South America and intended to spend the summer at his farm home.

Arthur Durham, formerly of Sedalia, but more recently of Washington, D. C., left for his home following a visit here. He is with the train service board of adjustment in Washington.

A group of members of the Sedalia Business and Professional Women's Club made a visit to Marshall with the intent of forming a like organization there.

Bert H. Knapp, trainmaster on the St. Louis division of the Missouri Pacific with headquarters at Jefferson City, died at his home there. Before going to Jefferson City he was chief dispatcher for the company in Sedalia.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Members of the graduating class of the Sedalia High School, at a meeting, agreed to appear at the baccalaureate sermon and commencement in cap and gown as desired by the board of education. The class previously petitioned the board to rescind its order for such attire.

Phil Kidd, field representative for the National Bank of Commerce in St. Louis, a former Sedalian, made a visit here, then left for Tipton, Columbia and Centralia on business for that institution.

Joseph M. Knight returned from Para, Brazil, where he had been chief engineer in charge of construction of a big project under a contract held by S. Pierson & Son.

Herbert Chaney, who has been in the Western Union Telegraph offices here, was transferred to the main office of the company in Kansas City.

Reds Threaten Chinese Wives

SINGAPORE (AP)—Chinese Communist officials are forcing wives of Malayan Chinese to entice their husbands back to China or be married to other men.

The women have sent urgent appeals to their businessmen husbands in Singapore and Malaya to have them evacuated. Desperate Chinese husbands, in turn, have petitioned legislative councilors imploring them to get the Singapore and Malayan governments to relax immigration regulations in order to have their wives join them.

Sen. Bobb Kerr Combines Rare Attributes

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

(Editor's Note—As the Presidential campaign gets hotter, Drew Pearson today begins a series of columns dissecting the Democratic candidates for President. The first is Sen. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma, who next week faces his first primary test in Nebraska. Mr. Pearson is also conducting a poll of his readers on the Democratic candidates. You can participate by addressing a postcard to Box 1952, Washington, D. C.)

WASHINGTON — Three years ago if anyone had told Senate oldtimers that two freshman Senators, Kerr of Oklahoma and Kefauver of Tennessee, would be battling it out for the presidency in 1952, the prediction would have been called ridiculous.

Yet that's exactly what is happening in Nebraska next Tuesday. Furthermore, in view of the need of new blood in the Democratic party, it's a healthy development. And since the Senator from Tennessee has been more publicized than the Senator from Oklahoma, here is a bird's-eye view of the likable, Bible-pounding Bob Kerr who now aspires to the Presidency of the United States.

Senator Kerr combines a number of rare attributes. He is at one and the same time the most pious, one of the most powerful, the most genial, and probably the wealthiest member of the United States Senate. He also has a lot of courage—though some people call it gall.

Whether you agree with Bob Kerr or not, you can't help liking him. You also have to respect his piety. The fact that he teaches a Baptist Sunday school is not mere political window - dressing. He takes his religion seriously. He also takes prohibition seriously, and is one of the few Senators who never serves alcholoic beverages at his table.

Unethical Conduct

But though religion also implies high ethical standards, the Sunday School-teaching Senator from Oklahoma has brazenly flouted the Senate's standards of ethics and good conduct.

Senate rule 12 was set up by Senators in order to disquality any member who has a direct pecuniary interest in a piece of legislation. Though the rule is not compulsory, precedent has made it customary. And, according to the Senate parliamentarian, it has been followed consistently for many years. Thus, Sen. Warren Austin of Vermont, now ambassador to the United Nations, disqualified himself from voting on a Talc bill because he had investments in Talc.

Senator Kerr, on the other hand, not only introduced the Kerr bill which would have had the effect of increasing the price of natural gas carried in interstate pipelines, but became its No. 1 lobbyist. He buttonholed Senators, urged, cajoled and demanded that they vote for a bill which stood to make his company several hundred thousands dollars.

Finally, after the bill was vetoed by his friend, the President, Kerr and the attorney for Phillips petroleum, ex-White House counsel Clark Clifford, managed to lobby a ruling through the Federal Power Commission which accomplished the same price-hiking ends as the Kerr bill.

Kerr's Wealth

Yet the Senator from Oklahoma had several million dollars of pecuniary interest directly tied up in his bill to remove the Federal Power Commission's control over the price of natural gas.

Kerr owns oil and gas lands valued at a total of around one hundred million dollars. On this, he and his partner, who operate the Kerr - McGee Oil Industries Co., officially reported a 1949 gross income of $14,930,150 with a net income of $1,218,627. In 1948, their gross income was $12,538,058, on which was paid an income tax of only $29,053 due to the generous oil depletion benefits given the oil companies under the federal tax laws.

Kerr's company also has at least four contracts to sell natural gas in interstate commerce, thus immediately benefiting from the law he battled through Congress. One is with Texas Gas Transmission Co., one with Southern Natural Gas, one with Trunkline Gas Supply, and one with El Paso Natural Gas.

These records are all on file with the Federal Power Commission. Yet during Senate debate, none of his colleagues challenged the Senator from Oklahoma regarding the ethics of his conduct in lobbying for a bill which meant a small fortune to his company, and which would cost northern housewives an estimated $506,000,000 a year in increased gas bills.

Kerr shook his finger under colleagues' noses, demanded that they vote "right," and made himself something of a nuisance; yet none of them asked why he did not abide by Senate rule 12 and abstain from voting for his own pocketbook.

Bob Kerr operates on the theory that if you keep quoting from the Bible often enough and have money and power enough, people will forget certain other things.

And this is pretty much what has happened. When the RFC scandals were investigated last year, the public heard much about mink coat but nothing about Senator Kerr's brother, Aubrey. Bob Kerr was sworn in as a U. S. Senator in January 1949 and didn't wait long to put his brother in the job of handling RFC law business in Oklahoma. Brother Aubrey took over in February 1949—just one month later.

Senators investigating the RFC last year turned up various interesting pieces of patronage, but considerately overlooked—or failed to remember—the RFC plum handed the Kerr family.

Even President Truman has a kindly memory as far as the genial Senator from Oklahoma is concerned. The President said not a word when the Senator and the President's old pal, Chairman Mon Wallgren of the Federal Power Commission, managed to reverse the Presidential veto of the Kerr bill. But perhaps this was because the President was so grateful to Bob for being the one Senator with courage enough to stand up and be counted in the fight over General MacArthur.

Kerr took on MacArthur single handed at a time when public opinion was strongly for the general. That was the actual beginning of the current Nebraska primary. For it was then that the President first began talking about Bob Kerr as a vice-presidential candidate—the real job to which the Senator from Oklahoma aspires.

Now Army Pick-Up Men Follow Troops To Get Cast Aways

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ever hear the story of the foot soldier who because of heat and exhaustion threw away so much of his equipment that he reached the front lines with only a spoon?

Well, the Army now says it has a happy ending.

Salvage units in Korea follow the weary doughfeet right up to the battle lines, picking up equipment almost as fast as it's tossed aside.

The technique was described by Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army chief of staff, to a House appropriation today.

Collins said each commander is responsible for recovering discarded equipment when his unit moves to a new location.

He said the system is working.

Italy Needs Wheat

ROME (AP)—Italy will have to import 180,000 tons of wheat to meet the nation's requirements in 1952, according to year-end estimates. The major part, 110,000 tons, is expected to come from Italy's quota under the International Wheat Agreement. Other likely sources given in a recently published survey include: 20,000 tons from Russia, and 40,000 tons from Argentina.

'Ham' Uses Old Tube

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Irving Vermilya, 61, one of the veteran "ham" operators in the United States, has run one transmitting tube for 16 years.

An amateur since 1901, his call letters are WIZE, according to the American Radio Relay League. He operates out of Mattapoisett, Mass.

Triumph of Brains Over Brawn

Army Increases Its Fire Power By 50 Percent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins says the Army has increased its firepower by 50 per cent over World War II and is making "superior weapons to those of the Soviets."

The Army chief of staff told Congress the Korean campaign—which officials disclosed has cost the Army alone over eight billion dollars—proved this superiority.

Collins said the American arsenal of weapons—from artillery to tanks—now would be "tremendously effective" against a mass Russian attack in Europe.

In the future, he said, "atomic artillery and guided missiles with and without atomic warheads will greatly enhance the power" of forces trying to hold back a mass assault.

Collins and other top officers testified last month before a House appropriations subcommittee on army requests for $14,200,000,000 of new funds in next year's 52 billion dollar military budget. Their testimony was released today.

Maj. Gen. G. H. Decker, chief Army budget officer, said the Army's share of the Korean fighting averages about 380 million dollars a month, even during the "twilight war."

He said the Army cost was around seven billion at the end of last year and probably would reach nine billion by next June 30, if fighting continues.

Decker said this was the cost of maintaining the Army and the materiel it had supplied to other American services and United Nations allies. It does not represent the total American or Allied cost of the campaign.

He said the Army would need a supplemental appropriation of about two billion dollars if hostilities continue through June.

Collins said "an armistice under honorable terms would be a successful conclusion" of the Korean campaign. Meanwhile the objective is to hold on to present territory.

The subcommittee also was told:

1. Army draft calls will jump to around 50,000 a month after July 1, more than triple the 15,000 scheduled for May. New recruits will be needed to replace between 500,000 and 700,000 inductees who will be released from service before June 30, 1953.

2. Antiaircraft defenses around key American cities and industrial areas have been more than doubled but are not yet sufficient, Collins said. However "our new rockets and missiles are showing great progress and will materially strengthen the defenses of our cities against enemy air attacks."

Collins said a Russian attack on Europe would be met by the "great firepower" of conventional weapons plus a "series of new anti-tank weapons," equally effective against troops and armor.

These would be augmented by "greatly improved tanks" and airpower.

"We know from experience that such a combination," he said, "can greatly reduce the offensive power of an Army that uses masses of manpower and a great many tanks" such as the Russians do.

SALLY CRAVATH, a touch lovelier than the morning itself, stood on guard beside the car. Cravath had the car door open and was messing with dashboard mechanisms. He backed out and immediately looked sheepishly at me. He tossed something, jingling and glittering. The chain and clasp that held the car keys.

"You're not going just yet," Cravath said.

I put the keys in my pocket. "I thought you were sore."

He shook his head. "I realize you couldn't have done anything else. I wouldn't have schemed against Jack—I'd have tried to face him down, but he'd have admitted nothing."

Sally spoke, "Uncle Marney routed me out at some ungodly hour and told me the whole thing. Uncle Jack, of all people."

I said, "He was an ambitious man who had the misfortune to be in close association most of his life with a better man. His ego couldn't stand being second-best any longer. A few days ago, Sally, you said something about 'Dumont for Cravath' at Yale. Seldom, I imagine, 'Cravath for Dumont.' Dumont was a substitute — in sports, in business . . ."

I stopped. Had one of these two married Eve Wheeler years ago, things might have been completely different.

They had not, however. And, apparently they had chosen a very late date to fall simultaneously in love with her. Cravath sensed the reason for my halt and interrupted.

"Jim claimed Sladen was desperate enough to make the attempt even if he saw Jack along, and I stalled Jack when he asked me to explain my theory about Ames's death."

Hastily I went on, "We could have gone after the ball that killed Ames, but grappling hooks and divers would have warned Dumont—and proved nothing. We had to trick him."

* * *

CRAVATH explained to Sally. "According to Jim, Dave would take a shot a me while I was going through the motions of measuring. I didn't know what he was going to shoot with. Orth kept me in the dark about the bowling ball business."

"How would Sladen know that you'd be out there?" she inquired promptly.

"Orth was to get in conversation with Dave and tell him about Mrs. Ring's part in this. Then, as I understood it, he would let slip that he heard me questioning Ring again and saying that I intended to go out there last night and try to prove some theory of my own about Ames' death. Actually, he told Dave the truth."

"But what did you tell Uncle Jack?"

"Only that I was going to take some measurements to work out this theory of mine, and asked him to help me. I never dreamed but what Jack was just going to be along as an extra witness—and in case Sladen got tough."

She shook her head. "I wonder you fell for that about Sladen, Uncle Marney. If Dave had been the murderer and you took Uncle Jack with you, Dave would have seen Uncle Jack and shied off."

Cravath shrugged. "I raised that point. But Orth insisted that Sladen was desperate enough to make the attempt. I was to shout to Jack to take the tape all the way up to the start of the path. That would have given Sladen his chance."

"I'd have thought that Uncle Jack would have wanted to know what your theory was."

"He did." Cravath said. "But I put him off. Said it was too vague to talk about, on Orth's instructions." His eyes darkened. "He was just anxious to get rid of me and knowing that I proposed to go out on the edge of the cliff was the important thing to him."

"Look," I said, "it was a pretty clumsy scheme. But I couldn't think of anything better."

Cravath's big jaw came forward suddenly. "It was good enough, Orth."

He said it composedly. But the last of the scales must have hurt, falling from his eyes.

Enough, though! I thought so too. So I didn't mention certain other of Harrison's findings. For instance, Dumont's association with some expensive friends in New York. The type you don't go after unless you're prepared to put a lot of dough on the line.

No sense dragging that out. But it explained why Dumont could have used 50 grand.

Not that I blamed him. Dolly, drunk and non compos, must have been a heavy millstone year after year.

* * *

I MIGHT have had to mention it, however, save for Eve Wheeler. She chose that gratifying moment to appear. In something woolen, and attractive, and suitable for autumn. She gave us a wave and started for a walk, with that graceful, indolent, free-swinging movement she had.

Right there Marston Cravath was subtle, like a bulldozer. "Excuse me," he said, and went.

I looked at Sally, the only girl who could ever matter to me. She didn't return the look. Her gorgeous eyes followed her uncle.

"Exit," she said, "what used to be the tops bachelor on Long Island." With that, she fluttered slim fingers after him. "Well, so long, darling."

Which got my goat. And also goaded me to speech.

"So long!" I said. "You've still got your uncle and you'll get a swell new aunt. But look at me! I got plenty of nuthin'."

She did look at me. Her best look. And, brother, that is something. "Oh, I'm no pig," she said, and, suddenly, her eyes went all hazy. "I'll share them with you. That's if you're planning to be around anywhere."

Well! Can you imagine how this particular private eye felt . . . just about then.

"Why don't you hint to him about your uncle owning a store where you can get a discount on furniture?"

Of slightly different construction is the Marine Corps vest, worn by a mannequin above. Weighing seven and three-quarter pounds, it employs overlapping plates of plasticized glass fibers, as well as layers of nylon fabric. Both garments are said to stop a .45-caliber pistol or sub-machine-gun bullet at point-blank range, fragments from a grenade burst at three feet or a mortar burst at 10 feet (see inset). Fragmentation injuries comprise 70 per cent of all battle casualties.

'WE WHO ARE ABOUT TO DIE'—Five convicted murderers assume various attitudes as they await death by a 40-man firing squad in the cemetery at Guatemala City, Guatemala. None of the condemned men used the wooden stools on which they were to sit for the execution. They were convicted of trying to rob a house and murdering five members of the family with machetes and ice picks. (AP WIREPHOTO)

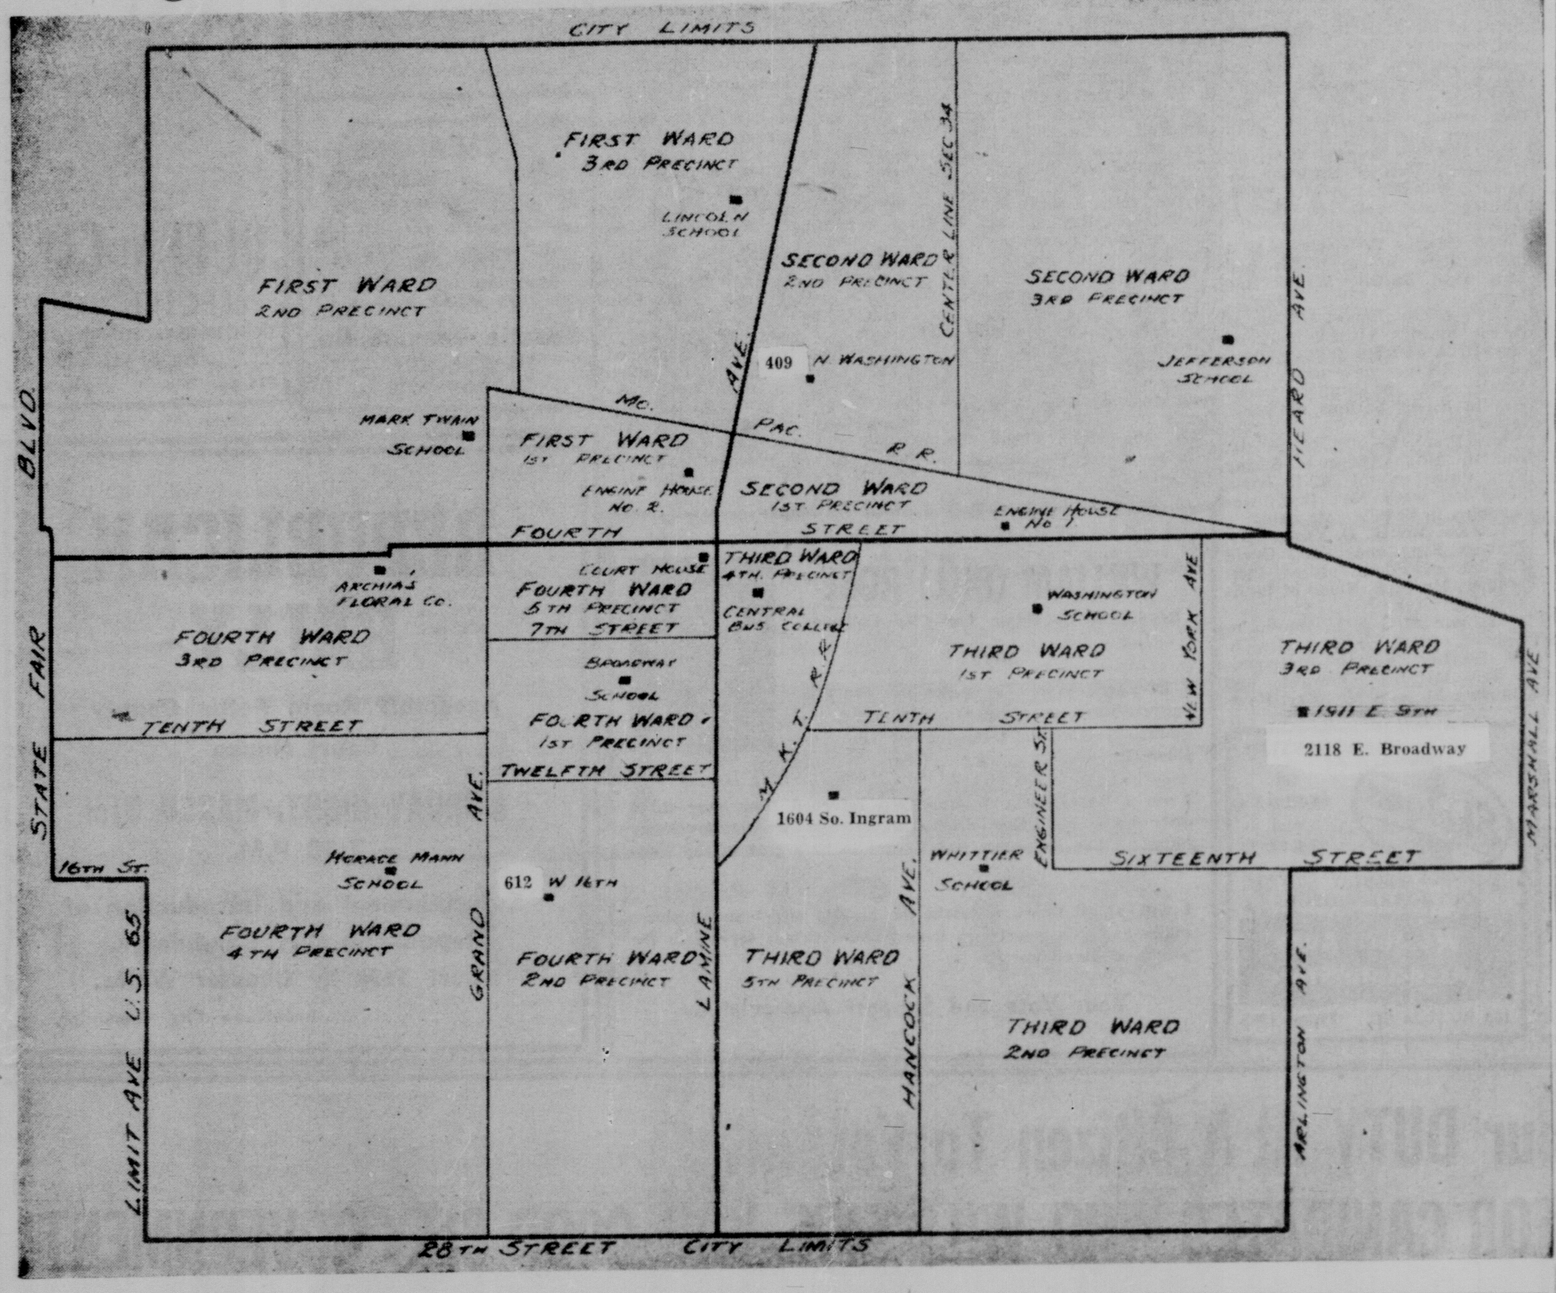

LIFE SAVER — Pfc. Ralph W. Barlow, of Redondo Beach, Calif., displays piece of shrapnel stopped by his armored vest during a patrol action in Korea. Impact of the shrapnel tore the vest (arrow) and knocked him down, but saved him from serious injury. The vest, developed by the Marine Corps, has been credited with saving 18 lives to date.

Taking a tip from the knights of old, several nations experimented with armor for soldiers at the end of World War I. Majority of the outfits, however, weighed an impractical 35 or 40 pounds. During World War II, 15-pound chest protectors, above, were issued to bulldozer operators who cleared way for advances in Germany.

Goose Has Nothing To Honk About After Day With an Ad Man

BALTIMORE (AP) — William, a goose, was back in the barnyard today telling his friends that the advertising business is nothing to honk about.

And old Bill ought to know—he had a pretty good gander at it yesterday.

He got hooked up with ad-man Francis Davenport in a scheme to exploit the liberal credit terms of a Baltimore department store. Davenport dressed up in a clown suit, saddled himself with a brightly painted sign and harnessed up old Bill just for kicks and to attract attention.

Together they padded the pavement of the city's streets. Late in the afternoon, a lady noticed bloody tracks on the sidewalk.

"They look like goose tracks," she told a policeman.

"Yes sir, bloody goose tracks," deducted the officer.

They followed the tracks to William and Francis, halted them and called a paddy wagon.

The ad-man and the ad-goose were taken to headquarters where S. P. C. A. agent Fred Prietz suggested that William be sent back to the barnyard.

Postpone Hearing On Western Union Aid to Bookmakers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has postponed until May 1 its hearing on proposals designed to keep Western Union facilities from being used by bookmakers.

The FCC said it wanted more time to study a petition by the state of California to broaden the hearings to take up all racing information transmissions. The hearing originally scheduled for March, already had been put off until April 1 to permit California to prepare evidence.

Western Union has proposed new rules which would sharply restrict use of its facilities for sending and receiving horse and dog racing information.

Hospital Patients Get Schooling

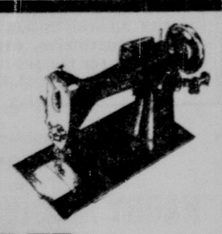

EDMONTON, Atla. (AP) — In classes without classrooms 374 Indian and Eskimo patients in the Charles Camsell Indian Hospital here are receiving a formal education.

Their classroom is a hospital ward. There is no age limit. In fact, 233 of the pupils are adults. Lessons are conducted by a principal and four teachers. Teachers move from bed to bed. The school was organized as a morale builder for bed-ridden patients and to carry on or begin studies for patients who previously had little or no opportunity to attend school.

New Test Finds Cancer In Many Men Over 45

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP) — A new test discovered cancer of the prostate gland in 30 per cent of 100 men, all 45 or older, and all with no obvious signs of cancer.

The test and results were described today by doctors at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons, during a tour sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Prostate cancer is the main form of cancer in men over 40. The Columbia study was designed to learn more about it, and to detect it early.

Until more men are examined, it can't be assumed that 30 per cent of all men over 45 are likely to have unsuspected prostate cancer, the doctors said.

In all 30 men, the cancers were caught early enough to be cured by surgery. The test uses a minor [illegible] of checking tissue by microscope to see if there is cancer.

Columbia gynecologists meanwhile checked 1,000 women for cancer of the cervix, the neck of the womb, and found 16 had seeds of cancer. These cancers were detected by two tests, one that checks cells in body fluids and one that checks bits of tissue taken from the cervix.

The physicians declared that new detection methods, and public interest in having cancer checkups, are encouraging news, making it possible to find cancers early, when they are most easily cured.

Bulls No Longer Ferocious

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The brave bulls aren't that way any more. In fact, says the Mexican bullfight fan, they are small, timid and weak.

The 1,000 or so fighting bulls used every year in Mexico come from 103 specialized ranches. Prices range from $580 to $3,500. Reputedly the fighting bulls are descendants of wild cattle.

There are two theories about the present poor quality of the bulls. Some believe that the bulls are suffering from inbreeding, since none have been imported from Spain since the hoof and mouth disease broke out in 1946. Another theory is that their pasture land has been exhausted, so they aren't getting the right feeds.

Ike Gets Nine Maine Votes; Taft Only 5

BANGOR, Me. (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower gets nine—maybe 11—of Maine's 16 Republican National Convention votes; the other five are held by Taft delegates.

Two members of the delegation elected at yesterday's state convention windup say they're neutral. But they reportedly lean to Ike as a presidential nominee.

The general's campaign chief didn't hesitate to claim them. Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge (R-Mass) said in Washington that 11 delegates were for Eisenhower—"A NOTABL and significant victory."

Sen. Taft, in Milwaukee, said the outcome was "about what we expected."

"It was no surprise," he added. "In fact, in some respects, it was an improvement since we got only one delegate there four years ago."

The delegation will go to Chicago unpledged, as is the custom of Maine Republicans.

Eisenhower's candidates won all five delegate seats from the First Congressional District and four of six from the Second (the other two are the "neutrals"). Taft adherents took all five seats representing the Third District.

The Third District is the home of Sen. Owen Brewster (R-Me), a vigorous Taft supporter, who saw the results as "another battle of the campaign and no occasion to be disturbed over future possibilities."

But Sidney W. Thaxter of Portland, Eisenhower's Maine chairman, declared that "the clean sweep of the First and Second Districts clearly shows that a majority of Maine Republicans favor his candidacy."

Both camps had claimed the Second District, and some Taft people attributed the general's victory there to a speech made by Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me) in nearby Orono Thursday night.

Mrs. Smith, who hasn't made her own preference known, said the general appeared to be on the verge of "bandwagon" support that might remove all opposition.

Nelson Eddy Thinks Small Town Folk Enjoy Music More

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (AP)—Nelson Eddy thinks small town citizens appreciate "understandable music" much more than they did 25 years ago.

That was when the famous baritone and ex-movie star started his singing tours of the U. S. with his accompanist Theodore Paxson. They celebrated the anniversary in Bluefield, a town of about 25,000 in West Virginia's coal fields.

"When we began," Eddy said, "the understandable Italian classics and German lieder weren't accepted by small town audiences. Now the selections meet with tremendous reception."

As a matter of fact, Eddy thinks some of the "highfalutin New York and Chicago music critics" ought to cut their hair and come out into the heart of the nation to see what the people really want in understandable music.

Report Two Soviet Planes Crash, Kill 70

BERLIN (AP)—A report that two Soviet planes collided at Moscow air field, killing 70 persons, circulated in Berlin today without confirmation from any official quarter.

The Associated Press Bureau in Moscow said it could not confirm that any airplane collision had occurred there. This could mean that the Moscow censor forbade cabling the news.

The report as circulated here said a plane carrying 34 "students of honor" from Moscow's Voroshilov Military Academy en route to Berlin for a propaganda visit collided with a civilian plane.

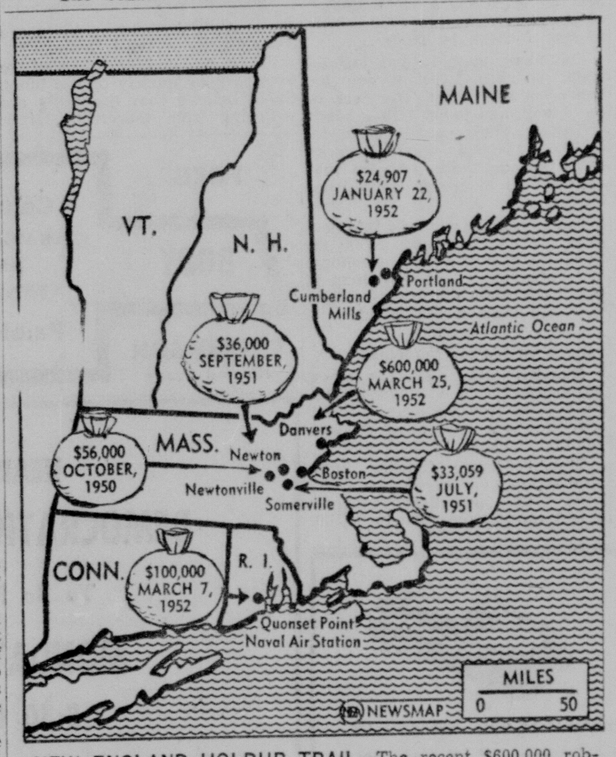

Recommend Funds For 'Voice' of US

WASHINGTON (AP)—Funds for expanding the "Voice of America" and other foreign propaganda programs were recommended today by the House Appropriations Committee.

They were included in a $1,069,992,859 appropriation bill financing the State, Justice and Commerce Departments and the federal courts for the fiscal year starting July 1. The committee sent the bill to the House floor for debate next week.

The bill's total is $172,829,450 — 13.9 per cent less than President Truman had requested.

NEW ENGLAND HOLDUP TRAIL—The recent $600,000 robbery of an armored car in Danvers, Mass., brought to 14 the number of unsolved major cash robberies in New England since nine masked bandits stole $1,219,000 from Brink's, Inc., Boston office two years ago. Located on map above are six of the largest robberies. The Danvers and Quonset Point robberies swelled loot since the Brink's haul to more than $925,000.

Waldorf Astoria's Waiters Sue Firm For $2 Million Tips

NEW YORK (AP)—Some Waldorf Astoria waiters have started a three million dollar suit against the hotel for tips allegedly withheld from them during the past three years.

The state Supreme Court suit, disclosed yesterday, was filed by Elias Simadiris on behalf of himself and of more than 100 other waiters.

Abraham Unger, attorney for Simadiris, said the hotel had been collecting 15 per cent of the food check from its banquet customers as tips for the waiters, but gave the waiters only 10 per cent.

In an affidavit, the hotel's counsel said the Waldorf's contract with the AFL New York Hotel Trades Council provides that all grievances must be submitted to arbitration.

The trades council has filed a motion for leave to intervene as a party defendant and have the controversy submitted to the industry's impartial arbitrator.

Limited Number Of Observers Will See Next A-Tests

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atomic tests to be held in Nevada the fourth week in April will be witnessed by a limited number of newsmen and civil defense officials.

The Atomic Energy Commission said yesterday "representatives of news services, newspapers, periodicals, radio, television, newsreels and photo news services will be allocated quotas."

"The federal Civil Defense Administration will invite state and territorial civil defense officials, the announcement said.

It added that tests will include "troop participation."

Army to Spend More Money on Deserters Than in Giving Medals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army plans to spend more money next year for catching deserters than in awarding medals.

A breakdown of miscellaneous personnel costs under the Army's requested $14,200,000,000 in new funds for next year showed these items:

"Apprehension of deserters, $1,957,000; awards and medals, $1,650,000"

The breakdown was part of testimony released today by a House appropriations subcommittee.

Army officials said the cost of catching deserters included the expenses of military police guards.

They also estimated the Army saved perhaps seven million dollars a year by withholding pay for soldiers while they are absent without leave.

Old Fire Dog Back to His Post

PORT WASHINGTON, N.Y. (AP)—Smoky, the ousted fire dog, is coming back to his old job by popular demand.

The town fire board boarded him out a few weeks ago when he nipped a woman who walked too close to some of the equipment of his Engine Company No. 1.

Smoky's friends, the firemen, never felt good about their mascot leaving.

They felt worse when cards and letters poured in, asking another chance for him.

They got up a petition and asked the fire board to relent.

Last night, the board did, almost unanimously.

Smoky is coming home as soon as possible.

He's Convicted Of Manslaughter In Wife's Death

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Convicted of involuntary manslaughter in the death of his wife by freezing, Edward G. Spencer today faced a possible prison term of one to 15 years.

A jury of nine women and three men convicted the 45-year-old trucking executive in an hour and 35 minutes yesterday. Circuit Judge John Simpson said he would pass sentence April 1. Spencer's $5,000 bond was continued.

The thrice-wed Spencer admitted leaving his attractive 21-year-old wife, Loretta, lying in their snow-covered driveway after an evening of drinking Dec. 19. She was found frozen to death next morning.

Spencer testified he had tried to drag her home, but that his wife "folded up like a jackknife" and he fell in the snow, too. He said he blanked out, but apparently staggered into the house and went to sleep.

The jury interrupted its deliberations to ask Judge Simpson about Spencer's responsibility on the morning of Dec. 20. He told the jurors it was the same as on the previous night — to watch out for the wife's safety.

Spencer had testified that when he found his wife in the driveway next morning, he bent over her and heard her muttering, then went inside and called police. Later, he testified, he walked past the prostrate woman to go down to the road to direct authorities to the spot.

May Launch Drive Against 'Offensive' Radio, TV Programs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress may launch an investigation aimed at eliminating "offensive" radio and television programs and "immoral" books.

The House Rules Committee approved such a probe yesterday. It would be conducted by a 15-member committee consisting of four each from the House Committees on Judiciary, Postoffice and Interstate Commerce and three to be appointed by the speaker.

The committee would report to the House on the adequacy of existing laws to keep undesirable programs off the air and offensive books from being published and distributed.

Rep. Gathings (D-Ark), author of the proposal, said he wants to insure "wholesome programs on the air."

He said he first proposed the probe two years ago after he became alarmed at the number of programs depicting violence which are televised during the hours when children are watching sets.

More Cabbies

MONTREAL (AP)—Taxicab company officials here said heavy snowstorms have given them their busiest winter in five years. Montreal now has more than 4,000 taxicabs, compared with about 800 during the last war.

Seek Man Who Tried To Kill Mr. Adenauer

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—A police dragnet over West Germany today sought the unidentified man who tried to kill Chancellor Konrad Adenauer with a mailed bomb.

Brought to the police here by two suspicious teen-agers, the bomb exploded, killed the German expert trying to dismantle it and wounded four other persons.

Parcels addressed to Adenauer always are sifted by a security screen.

The blast wounded two policemen and two reporters who were watching the dismantling attempt.

All Bavarian police stations were alerted to look for a man the two boys said handed them the package containing the bomb and asked them to mail it.

Increased Use Of Motors Offsets Farm Man Loss

WASHINGTON (AP) — Increased use of electric motors and mechanical devices on farms would help offset declining farm manpower, a House committee has been told.

Asking funds for rural electrification, Clark T. McWhorter, Blair, Okla., farmer and president of the National Rural Electric Co-Operative Association, told the House Agriculture Appropriations Committee that farm workers are leaving to take higher paying industry jobs.

Testimony before the committee was made public today.

McWhorter estimated there will be 250,000 fewer farm workers this year than last.

Farmers face the problem of expanding production to meet the nation's requirements when there are fewer men on farms to do the job, he testified.

"The obvious answer, and one of the primary solutions to this vital problem, is to increase not the manpower on the farms, but to increase the horsepower in terms of electric motors and mechanical devices in the fields, in the barns and in the farm homes," he declared.

Rural electric systems are making every effort to convince farmers that increased mechanization and electrification of his work is the shortest route to increased and more efficient production, he informed the committee.

A one-fourth horsepower motor can do the work of about two men, McWhorter said, but there still are some one million farms not served with electric power.

Present world records for trotters and pacers were established on successive days in 1938. The pacer Billy Direct went a mile in 1.55 on September 28th and the trotter Greyhound in 1.55¼ on the 29th.

BEWARE OF THE FLY-BY-NIGHT!

With the coming of spring, another type of peddler usually makes his appearance on the scene. These peddlers are the itinerant roofers, insulation and home decorating salesmen.

By virtue of smooth, fast talk and fancy contracts, these men manage to do a fair amount of business. Their products are usually all right for quality and their workmanship is passable.

But, before you contract with them, please investigate and get bids on comparable jobs from Home Lumber Co.

Here's an example:

Several asbestos-siding jobs have been sold in this community by these people at prices ranging from $35 to $50 per square.

The asbestos shingles used cost on an average of $12.50 per square. Any one of several local carpenters would be glad to handle the installation for $7.00 to $10.00 per square. On the average house using 15 to 20 squares of siding, the difference is $150 to $300. Is it worth that amount of money to you to investigate before you buy?

They're First Home Towners He's Seen In Past 25 Years

By Mrs. Thomas W. Miller

TIPTON—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Akin returned Monday from a three weeks vacation to the west coast. They were in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif., and report continuous rain and snow throughout their entire trip.

On their way they stopped at a service station at El Reno, Okla., the owner being a former resident of Fortuna, Ed Wolf, who told them that in 25 years they were the first from this section whom he had seen.

Mr. Akin has resumed his taxi service here. He and Mrs. Akin reside at the City Hotel.

John Latham, Tipton, and Emil Rombach, California, of the Rombach-Latham Appliance Co., were in Kansas City Monday attending a refrigerator service school.

After having been a patient at St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City since March 2, Mrs. J. F. McVean was dismissed Tuesday. She had undergone a thyroid operation. Mrs. McVean will visit awhile in Kansas City with her aunt, Mrs. Eugene Phelps, before returning to the family home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Swarner, Springfield, were guests last Wednesday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Swarner.

Paul E. Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stahl, Syracuse, has enrolled for the spring term at the Oklahoma A&M College, Stillwater.

Jim Alexander, who has been working on construction out of Kansas City, and his sister, Miss Helen Alexander, an employe in the office of the army engineers in Kansas City, spent the weekend here at home, Jim with his family and Miss Helen with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Alexander. They were accompanied by Jim Barnett, a mailman in Kansas City, who visited his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Miller and son, Steven.

A 20x30-foot addition is being built at the Hainen Motor Company building in the south part of town. The new room, being added to the east side of the garage, will be a paint shop and Andy Hainen, the owner, is adding equipment which will enable enamel-baking. The new section is being constructed of Haydite blocks by J. F. Morrow, contractor. It is now ready for the roof which will be of metal.

The distribution of warm weather types of plant after glacial times preceeded slowly and even today Ireland has far fewer types of plant than England and England has less than the Continent.

Germ Warfare Not Believed By Most World

By The Associated Press

Soviet charges that the United States is waging germ warfare in North Korea and Red China are meeting in general with disbelief outside the Iron Curtain countries, an Associated Press survey showed today.

It is impossible to tell what effect the Soviet charges are having on the populations in the Communist countries.

One of the chief aims of the Soviets is to sell the millions of people in Southeast Asia the idea that the Western powers have no compunction against unloosing the dreaded weapons of germ warfare to further "Western imperialism."

The United States and Britain demanded that the International Red Cross or the World Health Organization be permitted to send experts into Communist China and North Korea and report what they found. The Communists replied with a scornful no.

British Foreign Office officials believe the Communist refusal to permit such inspection has blunted the effect of the Red propaganda on the minds of Asian peoples. But the officials admit that counteracting the "big lie" tactics of the Soviets is a tough task, and the Communists will have a victory even if they raise doubts in enough minds.

Newspapers in French-controlled sections of Viet Nam, where the French are heading the fight against the Communist-led Vietminh, view the germ charges as just as ridiculous as the Communist accusations a couple of years back that Americans were dropping potato bugs in the Soviet zone of Germany and Czechoslovakia.

Saigon newspapers give a big play to the Red charges and the American denials. Many of the papers have pointed out that the Chinese Communists killed off many of their best physicians in purges, are undoubtedly short of medical supplies and are undergoing epidemics. Saigon radio broadcasts emphasize that the Reds have refused to agree to any impartial investigation.

In India a top level official summarized his government's reaction to the Soviet charges as "incredulous horror."

India's press would like to see an impartial investigation, "preferably by the International Red Cross."

Some followers of Mohandas Gandhi, however, are inclined to give the Chinese Reds the benefit of the doubt until an inquiry is made. Said one such disciple to a Western questioner:

"After you dropped the atom bomb on Japan, I'm afraid the Asians would not be surprised at anything you would do."

Indonesia's press, concerned with a cabinet crisis, has paid almost no attention to the Communist charges. Government officials privately are skeptical of the accusations but say the Chinese should "prove what they say is true" by admitting an international investigating committee.

Responsible observers of public opinion feel, however, that the constant Red reiterations of the charges has aroused "widespread doubts" among many Indonesians, who usually tend to be suspicious of Western sincerity.

In Western Europe, as expected, officials and the press—with the exception of the Communist organs—ridicule the Soviet germ war charges.

Roast Turkey Is Top Dish Of All Menus for US GI's

WASHINGTON (AP) — American soldiers like roast turkey the best among all meat dishes, bacon-and-turnip-greens the least. They're strong for fresh sliced tomatoes and buttered corn on the cob, but will have little truck with asparagus or candied parsnips. Banana cream pie is their favorite dessert, stewed apricots their unfavorite.

The Quartermaster Corps furnished the House Appropriations Committee a chart of food preferences based on a series of surveys among the troops. The mess hall hit parade became available today with publication of hearing on the 52 billion dollar defense budget.

Pot roast of beef crossed the wire a half length behind turkey, followed by swiss steak, fried eggs, baked ham, barbecued beef, spaghetti and meat balls, grilled ham, baked hamburger steak and breaded pork chop.

The chow hounds' preference primary put the bacon - turnip greens entry in 51st place, with 33.6 per cent of the GI's shaking their heads at the mess sergeant. The biggest "dislike extremely" rating was reserved, however, for grilled liver with smothered onions. Fourteen per cent just couldn't take that one.

Southern cooking took a body blow when the soldiers rated black-eyed peas No. 22, boiled sweet-potatoes No. 24 and simmered leafy greens No. 33 among the vegetables.

They cheered for cold potato salad and grapefruit - banana - orange salad, but 48.9 per cent said no-thanks to chilled asparagus.

Milk turned out to be the servicemen's favorite drink. Hot coffee came in fifth, behind lemonade, cocoa and tomato juice.

"There are certain things soldiers like; there are other things it is practically impossible to put down their throats," Quartermaster Gen. G. A. Horkan told the congressmen. "Strawberries are very popular; fish they do not particularly care for.

Rep. Sikes (D-Fla) of the committee suggested that the Army do everything it can to economize on the grocery bill.

"When things are left over in your home or mine," he observed, "we get them the next day in hash or salad."

Gen. Horkan assured the congressman he was doing everything he could to promote that kind of corner-cutting in the camps.

See Passage Monday of Pay Hike for GI's

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders were confident today they have signals set for passage Monday of a bill giving all persons in the nation's uniformed services a cost-of-living pay boost.

This apparently was assured late yesterday when unanimous consent was obtained to limit debate and vote on all amendments and the bill itself Monday.

As the measure stands it would add an extra 471 million dollars to the pay of an estimated 3,600,000 persons in the seven uniformed services during the next fiscal year, starting July 1.

In addition to the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines the pay hike also applies to the Public Health Service, Coast and Geodetic Survey and the Coast Guard.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill) still hoped to attach a series of amendments to reduce or eliminate special hazard pay or other incentive or bonus allowances.

He contended they would save between 150 and 200 million dollars a year by greatly reducing special pay for Army, Navy and Air Force flyers, submariners, parachutists, bomb demolition experts.

Douglas also wants to end the $100 a month bonus for doctors, dentists and others in the uniformed services.

Sponsors of the bill expected to beat down the Douglas amendments just as they did a similar set last year.

Yesterday the Senate rejected by a standing vote an effort by Sen. Russell Long (D-La) to grant special "combat pay" of $50 a month to all men and officers who have fought or will fight in Korea.

Long said doughboys "fighting and dying in the mud and snow" are denied hazard pay that goes to "more fortunate brothers who fly" over Korea in aircraft.

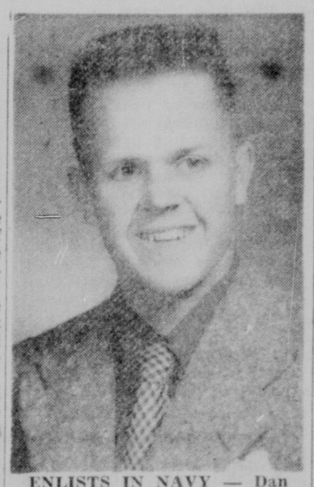

Douglas lashed out at Army, Navy and Air Force flying crews who qualify for extra pay by flying a few hours a month.

Navy and Air Force spokesmen yesterday told the Senate Armed Services Committee that elimination of flying pay would wreck the nation's air forces. They said the extra pay provides an incentive to younger men and officers to accept the extra risks.

Douglas proposed that all flying and submarine pay be cut to $30 a month.

West Germany Peace Pact In 2 Months

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany was told last night a peace contract will be signed with the Western Big Three within two months to wipe out nearly all occupation controls, allow defense rearmament and align this nation with the Western democracies.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer announced that U. S. Secretary of State Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman will come to the West German capital to sign the contract in the latter half of May. Adenauer spoke at a meeting of his Christian Democratic party at Bonn University.

The Chancellor said the peace contract will be followed by a treaty merging West Germany's projected military force with a six-nation European army under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Allied troops will remain in Germany to help defend her, but not as an occupation army.

The peace contract, which has been worked out in meetings since September between West Germany and the United States, Britain and France, will counter an intensive Russian effort to woo this strategic area from the West. The Soviets have offered as bait the tempting possibility of unifying Communist-occupied East Germany with the rest of the country and allowing a defensive German army prohibited from alliance with outside forces.

Spurning the Communist offer, Adenauer said, "A neutralized Germany, even with national forces, is impossible in the present era of atom weapons."

"Within a short time Russia would devour Europe by way of the cold war and we would become an appendix of Asia," he added.
